NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY AND LICENSURE NOTIFICATION

Chapman University does not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, color, age, disability, national origin, sexual orientation or ethnicity in any of its policies or practices, including but not limited to: admissions, academic requirements, financial aid, employment, housing, athletics or any other school-administered program or service. For people going for licensure in California, be aware that to apply for an intern number with the Board of Behavioral Sciences, a division of the California Department of Consumer Affairs, an applicant will be fingerprinted, and a background check will be conducted by the Department of Justice. Applicants with an arrest and/or conviction history may be subject to a case review by an administrative law judge and may be denied intern or licensee status. Questions regarding this issue should be directed to the Board of Behavioral Sciences, 400 "R" Street, Suite 3150, Sacramento, CA 95814-6240 at (916) 455-4933.
