About Cambridge

Cambridge, England has a 2000 year history. During the first century, the Belgic tribes established the first settlement at the location now recognized as Cambridge. The Belgic settlement achieved strategic significance when the Romans arrived in AD 43. Roman soldiers were stationed at the location, a ford for crossing the River Cam, on the Roman road connecting Colchester with Chester. Through the centuries the settlement grew from a village to a delightful town.

A group of rebel scholars arrived in 1209, having left Oxford after that which applicable history describes as “violent quarrels” with Oxford residents. The first college, Peterhouse, was established in 1284. Sidney Sussex College, our study-abroad residential college and the Cambridge college attended, by Oliver Cromwell, was founded in 1596. Sidney Sussex College was built on the site of a Franciscan friary.

The contemporary location is in the center of the beautiful and historic city and is truly outstanding. There are ten museums and galleries within walking distance of Sidney Sussex College. Cambridge is truly an excellent location for a study abroad program. We are privileged to offer law students the opportunity to study in Cambridge, as have Milton, Marlowe, Coleridge, Wordsworth and Byron before them.

About Sidney Sussex College

Sidney Sussex College at the University of Cambridge is a very well-kept secret—whether it is their Nobel Prize-winners, the building’s Elizabethan brickwork, charming Cloister Court, the haunting Chapel, exquisite rococo Hall, medieval cellars or beautiful ancient gardens—they all lie behind a rather self-effacing wall of Roman cement. Sidney’s history is an even better kept secret.

The truly fascinating and entirely unexpected history to be told about a small institution lies at the heart of British history. Sidney Fellows and students from 1596 have made a huge impact on all aspects of the nation’s culture, religion, politics, business, legal and scientific achievements. It has also found time to produce soldiers, political cartoonists, alchemists, spies, murderers, ghosts and arsonists, as well as, media personalities, film and opera directors, a Premiership football club chairman, best-selling authors, the man who introduced soccer to Hungary, the 1928 Grand National winner and, so they say, Sherlock Holmes. And let’s not forget the University Challenge Champions of Champions in 2002. If you wanted to study the history of Britain over the last 400 years, you could do worse than study the history of Sidney Sussex College in Cambridge.

Passports are required for a trip to England. Participating students should obtain their passports at their earliest convenience. Passports may be obtained through contact with the nearest State Department Office or United States Post Office. The U.K. has recently imposed new and stricter immigration requirements. "Spending the summer in Cambridge was one of the best decisions I made during law school. The combination of interesting classes, endless travel options, and a great group of people added up to an amazing experience. Learning about English and European law is fascinating and made me feel more informed about what is going on in the world. More importantly, I can now tell people I studied at Cambridge and drop Shakespeare references into my legal arguments." - Matthew Goethals '20, Fowler School of Law

Transportation

Each student participating in the program will be responsible for arranging their own transportation to and from England. Airlines provide a variety of reduced fare plans and early booking can create substantial savings. Summer flights to Europe fill quickly, therefore early travel arrangements should be made. Flights from the United States to London typically arrive at either Heathrow or Gatwick Airports.

Helpful airport websites: heathrow.com | heathrowexpress.com | gatwickairport.com | gatwick-airport-guide.co.uk | gatwickexpress.com

Students should pay careful attention to their air carriers' baggage allowances. Some airports also impose stricter carry-on luggage limitations than the airlines. Exceeding these limits can impose substantial additional charges. Information concerning the London subway system, also known as The Tube, can be obtained by going to tfl.gov.uk/tube.

Cambridge is about 55 miles north of London. One can take the train to Cambridge from either London's King's Cross Station or Liverpool Street Station. The express train ride takes approximately 50 minutes from King's Cross and approximately 80 minutes from Liverpool Street. It currently costs approximately 15–25 pounds, however, fares vary widely depending on the time of day. Trains depart about every 30 minutes from Kings Cross and 20 minutes from Liverpool Street.

Helpful train websites: nationalrail.co.uk | britrail.com | raileurope.com

BritRail passes may be a convenient, less expensive way to travel in England. Students should obtain a BritRail pass online well in advance of departing the U.S. The reduced rate BritRail pass will not be available in the U.K. and must be mailed to your U.S. address. britrail.com

The Cambridge Train Station is south of the city center, slightly more than one mile from Sidney Sussex College. The walk to the city center takes 20 minutes. There are taxi stands at the train station and a bus leaves for the city center approximately every 15 minutes. Sidney Sussex College is conveniently located in the city center. More information concerning Sidney Sussex College can be found here: sid.cam.ac.uk.

Cambridge tourist and travel information: visitcambridge.org | cam.ac.uk | cambridge.gov.uk

Coach service to Cambridge is also available from London's Victoria Coach Station, Gatwick Airport, and Heathrow Airport with coaches departing approximately every one to two hours. If you decide to take the bus from London to Cambridge, be sure to check the schedule carefully. Schedules, trip duration, and fares can vary widely at different times of day. Refer to nationalexpress.com for bus schedules and fares. The Cambridge Bus Station is centrally located, approximately 6/10 of a mile from Sidney Sussex College. The stop for coaches to and from Gatwick and Heathrow is at the edge of Parker's Piece in central Cambridge, two blocks from the Cambridge Bus Station.

Stansted Airport (STN) is located 25 miles from Cambridge. STN is great for travel throughout the U.K. and Ireland as well as continental Europe. Refer to the website stanstedairport.com for additional information about the airport and flights that are available. stanstedexpress.com.

Course Descriptions

LAW 753 (1) | The English Legal System

This course is intended to provide students with an overview of the English Legal System as one of the constituent legal jurisdictions of the United Kingdom and how it is influenced by the European Union and how the United Kingdom functions without a written constitution. The development of European Union law and human rights law and recent reforms of the highest court of the land will be considered. The course will consider the effect of the United Kingdom leaving the European Union. Some topics will be considered on a comparative basis.

LAW 754 (2) | Law of the European Union

This course is designed to further students' understanding of the European Union (EU) and its legal system. Topics include a review of the history of the EU and its institutions, the relationship between the law of the EU and the law of its member states, significant substantive initiatives such as the Lisbon Treaty, and the similarities (or not) of the EU to organizations such as NAFTA, MERCOSUR, The African Union, ASEAN, and the WTO. In light of the Brexit referendum, students will have the opportunity to observe the changing political balances in Europe and in the United Kingdom as England finalizes its departure from the EU.

LAW 755 (2) | Shakespeare and Trial Advocacy

This course acquaints the student with the interdisciplinary field of Shakespearean and legal studies. An innovative methodology of trial work and close textual reading is employed. No dramatic or literary experience is required. The class will view trials in Shakespeare's plays through live performances by the Cambridge Shakespeare Festival, the Globe and the Royal Shakespeare Company. This course is hands-on learning of persuasive advocacy skills through classical dramatic exposure. This is a unique opportunity to experience the drama of the law while in the land of Shakespeare.

Class in session at Sidney Sussex College
