

Documenting Clandestine Movement: A Conversation on the Ethics of Photoethnography along the Undocumented Migration Trail

WITH

Jason De León & Michael Wells

Moderated by Dr. Stephanie Takaragawa

Jason De León is Professor of Anthropology and Chicana/o Studies at UCLA and Executive Director of the Undocumented Migration Project, for which he won a Macarthur Fellowship in 2017. He is the author of the award-winning book The Land of Open Graves: Living and Dying on the Migrant Trail (California).

Michael Wells has served as primary photographer for the Undocumented Migration Project since its inception in 2009.

FOLINO THEATER | OCTOBER 17TH
KNOTT STUDIOS | 7:00 P.M.

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.
FOR INFORMATION, PLEASE CALL: (714) 997-6729

BENSUSSEN
Distinguished Lecture in the Arts

UNA INVESTIGACIÓN INTERDISCIPLINARIA
LA FRONTERA
THE BORDER
AN INTERDISCIPLINARY EXAMINATION