Claudine Jaenichen is an Assistant Professor of Art and Graphic Design. Professor Jaenichen’s design and research projects focus on cross-cultural understanding and sensitivity towards inclusive design. Her work has been published in the GD USA Design Annual, Applications of Information Design, and peer-reviewed Graphic Design: Purpose to Practice, among other publications. She is an Associate Research Fellow for Communication Research Institute, a member of the International Institute of Information Design, the Sign Design Society in London and American Institute of Graphic Arts. She holds a M.A. from the University of Reading, England.