Daniele C. Struppa is the Chancellor of Chapman University. Dr. Struppa had a distinguished career as a Professor of Mathematics, and occupied positions at the University of Milano (Italy), at the Scuola Normale Superiore in Pisa (Italy), at the University of Calabria (Italy), and at George Mason University. He is the author of more than 100 refereed publications, including two books, and he is the editor of several volumes. He has served on the boards of numerous non-profit organizations, such as the George Mason University Foundation, the Fall for the Book Festival, and the Virginia Foundation for the Humanities. He completed his Ph.D. in mathematics at the University of Maryland.