Citizenship, Community and Service Inquiry - Service

Note: Lists of courses in each GE category are provided to give students information on what courses may be available. However, the most up-to-date and official information about whether or not a course is approved for a GE category is in the course description provided in Campus Solutions through the student portal.

Students choose a course and/or complete three credits in the Service category, of the Citizenship, Community and Service Inquiry, that addresses that category’s learning outcomes.

Service Learning Outcome:
- Student examines the theoretical and/or applied aspects of community service through coursework and/or through active engagement in a service-learning experience and demonstrates:
  - the ability to apply discipline-specific and/or interdisciplinary knowledge and critical thinking skills to community issues.
  - critical self-reflection of the student’s own assumptions and values as applied to community issues.
  - knowledge and sensitivity to issues of culture, diversity, and social justice as applied to community engagement.

US Military Service for CC credit
Successful completion of one or more years of volunteer US military service completes the CC category. Contact the Registrar’s Office for more information on what documentation is required or if non-US military service may be applicable to this category.

Service Learning Opportunities for CC credit
Student engages in a service-learning experience through an individual study or internship under the advisement of a faculty member that includes an academic component and is registered for academic credit. Instructions for application and criteria for approval are provided on the Request for Internship or Individual Study to be considered for General Education Citizenship, Community, Service category form, available on the Registrar’s form page.
