Students complete part of their general education program in a language other than English so that they may lead inquiring, ethical and productive lives as global citizens. This may be accomplished by completing a language class at the intermediate or above level (i.e., a language acquisition course at the 201 level or a higher-level language course taught in language other than English). In today’s world, mastery of a foreign language transcends geography and political borders while reinforcing communication and cross-cultural understanding.

LC GE Languages-Student Learning Outcomes (SLO’s):

- Students will understand, speak, read and write the target language at the intermediate or above level as defined by the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Language (ACTFL) proficiency guidelines.
- Students will demonstrate an understanding of culture(s) where the target language is spoken and will compare similarities and differences across languages and cultures (according to National Standards in Foreign Language Education – Known as ‘The Five Cs’).
