

Dory Ann Carter
BFA Communications

Mentor:
Julye Bidmead

Beckman 107

Female resistance in country music has often been overlooked in a genre that has historically praised hegemonic masculinity. This presentation will comment on the way in which female country music artists showcase themes of power, revenge, and resistance in order to disrupt the typical patriarchal ideologies within the country music genre.