

Chapman University Graduate International Supplement Form

Start the Form I-20 Process

Now that you have submitted your enrollment deposit, we need to start the immigration process with you. The International Supplement Form provides Chapman University with information about your country of citizenship, current visa status, passport and, for students who intend to hold an F-1 visa, funding for your education.

For information regarding the purpose of this form and information on how to fulfill its requirements, please view the Graduate International Student Supplement Instructions.

Your completed form and necessary documents can be emailed to the Office of Graduate Admission at gradadmit@chapman.edu. If you are using a Mac computer, please do not use Preview when completing this.
