Professional Development Program offered by our dedicated career services team

Tracks available in areas such as finance, international business, marketing and entertainment

I joined Chapman as an international student with the goal of shifting my career into financial services. With all the great resources and facilities at Chapman, as well as the renowned faculty, I was able to build new skills and partake in experiences that further enhanced my resume. This opened doors to top employers within the financial services industry. I am very thankful to have also connected with Chapman's highly talented group of students. The Argyros School is the ideal place for great networking opportunities that helped me reach my desired career path at PwC.
