Master of Science in Athletic Training
2015-16 Student Bios

Stephanie Coffey

Hometown: Sammamish, WA
Undergraduate School: University of Washington
AT Career Goal: Performing Arts – Professional Ballet
What I like about the program: “I love how we get to do life-like scenarios that replicate emergency situations, which helps to better prepare us for a career in the athletic training field.”

Katie Fleming

Hometown: San Dimas, CA
Undergraduate School: California Baptist University
AT Career Goal: I wish to work in a High School or Junior College Level. I would also like to work for a performance and sports medicine training center.
What I like about the program: “I love the passion and enthusiasm our educators bring to the classroom as well as their practical expertise. The instructional methods used are designed to teach, encourage and build self-confidence to develop the skills required to become a certified ATC.”

Valencia Hamilton

Hometown: Fremont, CA
Undergraduate School: California Lutheran University
AT Career Goal: When I become certified, I aspire to work at the collegiate and or professional level.
What I like about the program: “The small cohort size promotes a cohesive and supportive environment between students and professors.”

Master of Science in Athletic Training: www.chapman.edu/athletic-training
Master of Science in Athletic Training
2015-16 Student Bios

Eric Hodgin

Hometown: Seal Beach, CA
Undergraduate School: CSU, Chico
AT Career Goal: Professional/College Level
What I like about the program: “I enjoy the numerous learning and clinical opportunities available to us.”

Alberto Huerta

Hometown: Dunnigan, CA
Undergraduate School: CSU, Chico
AT Career Goal: Professional Baseball or DII University
What I like about the program: “There’s a lot of knowledge and resources. The clinical staff provides high quality experiences and ensure that an individual becomes the best he or she can be. Chapman will take care of you and we all treat each other like family.”

Kyle Roberts

Hometown: Dallas, TX
Undergraduate School: Texas Tech University
AT Career Goal: Professional Sports, especially the NHL
What I like about the program: “The incentives offered by the program, including the interprofessional educational opportunities and variety of sports industries in the vicinity of Chapman.”

Master of Science in Athletic Training: www.chapman.edu/athletic-training
Master of Science in Athletic Training
2015-16 Student Bios

Jacqlyn Spencer

Hometown: Riverside, CA
Undergraduate School: CSU, San Bernardino
AT Career Goal: College/Professional
What I like about the program: “I like that we get the chance to experience all different levels of clinical sites throughout the program to help me decide where exactly I want to take my AT career.”

Ashley Watkins

Hometown: Paramount, CA
Undergraduate School: CSU, Fresno
AT Career Goal: My career goals are to be a head athletic trainer for a high school, junior college or university and also teach athletic training courses.
What I like about the program: “One thing I like about the program is the way the our courses are structured. The courses in this program provide us with different options within the field that I believe will help with employment and value as a certified athletic trainer.”

2015-16 Athletic Training Cohort

Master of Science in Athletic Training: www.chapman.edu/athletic-training