Gospel Voices of OC
A Staged Concert

This original event chronicles African American lives and artistry through chorale works, dance, orchestra, band, theatre, and spoken word. With more than 100 performers, Gospel Voices of OC spans June 19, 1865 to contemporary times. It's a joyous Juneteenth celebration of freedom and excellence sure to inspire all people of all ages.

Sunday, June 19, 4 P.M.
A Juneteenth Event

Tickets on sale now!
muscocenter.org | 844-OC-MUSCO

Marybelle and Sebastian P. Musco Center for the Arts
Chapman University