

MASTER OF ARTS IN SPECIAL EDUCATION WITH PRELIMINARY SPECIAL EDUCATION MILD/MODERATE CREDENTIAL

The mission of the program is to develop change agents, professionals who will pursue social justice side-by-side with people with disabilities. Candidates should be prepared to believe in and be advocates for the absolute dignity of all people, including those with labels of disability. The Preliminary Education Specialist Credential is embedded in the master's degree. In keeping with the Attallah College of Educational Studies commitment to developing global citizenship, students are encouraged to consider participating in at least one international learning experience during the course of their program.

Admission to the program and prerequisites

Admission to the program may be achieved by completion of the following requirements:

1. Hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution.
2. Have achieved the required admission grade point average as specified in the admission section. Applicants with a grade point average between 2.500 and 2.990 are required to submit passing scores from one of the following standard admission tests:
  - Official Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores.
  - California Subject Examinations for Teachers (CSET): Achieve a passing score.

Transfer of coursework

Up to six credits may be transferred into the program. Requests for transfer are submitted on a petition to transfer graduate degree coursework. Requests must meet transfer policies specified in the academic policies and procedures section and must be approved by the program coordinator and the dean of the College of Educational Studies.

MASTER OF ARTS IN SPECIAL EDUCATION WITH PRELIMINARY SPECIAL EDUCATION MODERATE/SEVERE CREDENTIAL

Admission to the program and prerequisites

Admission to the program may be achieved by completion of the following requirements:

1. Hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution.
2. Have achieved the required admission grade point average as specified in the admission section. Applicants with a grade point average between 2.75 and 3.00 are required to submit passing scores from one of the following standard admission tests:
  - Official Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores.
  - California Subject Examinations for Teachers (CSET): Achieve a passing score.

Transfer of coursework

Up to six credits may be transferred into the program. Requests for transfer are submitted on a petition to transfer graduate degree coursework. Requests must meet transfer policies specified in the academic policies and procedures section and must be approved by the program coordinator and the dean of the College of Educational Studies.

MASTER OF ARTS IN SPECIAL EDUCATION WITH PRELIMINARY SPECIAL EDUCATION MILD/MODERATE AND MODERATE/SEVERE CREDENTIALS

Admission to the program and prerequisites

Admission to the program may be achieved by completion of the following requirements:

1. Hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution.
2. Have achieved the required admission grade point average as specified in the admission section. Applicants with a grade point average between 2.75 and 3.00 are required to submit passing scores from one of the following standard admission tests:
  - Official Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores.
  - California Subject Examinations for Teachers (CSET): Achieve a passing score.

Transfer of coursework

Up to six credits may be transferred into the program. Requests for transfer are submitted on a petition to transfer graduate degree coursework. Requests must meet transfer policies specified in the academic policies and procedures section and must be approved by the program coordinator and the dean of the College of Educational Studies.

MASTER OF ARTS IN SPECIAL EDUCATION WITH JOINT PRELIMINARY SPECIAL EDUCATION MILD/MODERATE AND MULTIPLE SUBJECT CREDENTIAL

Admission to the program and prerequisites

Admission to the program may be achieved by completion of the following requirements:

1. Hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution.
2. Have achieved the required admission grade point average as specified in the admission section. Applicants with a grade point average between 2.75 and 3.00 are required to submit passing scores from one of the following standard admission tests:
  - Official Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores.
  - California Subject Examinations for Teachers (CSET): Achieve a passing score.

Transfer of coursework

Up to six credits may be transferred into the program. Requests for transfer are submitted on a petition to transfer graduate degree coursework. Requests must meet transfer policies specified in the academic policies and procedures section and must be approved by the program coordinator and the dean of the College of Educational Studies.