

RES IPSA LOQUITUR

FACULTY NEWS

Chapman University School of Law
Faculty Update

Available online at: www.chapman.edu/law/news/resipsa.asp

FALL-WINTER EDITION

2010-2011

DEEPA BADRINARAYANA presented on nuclear energy and/or climate change at numerous events, including: the 2nd UNITAR-Yale Conference on Environmental Governance and Democracy: Strengthening Institutions to Address Climate Change and Advance a Green Economy at Yale University School of Law; Special Lecture at Pace University School of Law; International Conference on Globalization in India and the USA: Law, Governance and Business, O.P. Jindal Global University and Yale University, New Delhi; American Society of International Law—International Economic Law Group, Biennial Conference, University of Minnesota, School of Law; International Law Weekend, Fordham Law School; and the Environmental Law and Justice Symposium, Florida A&M University. Deepa also blogged for the SALT blog.

MICHAEL BAZYLER published Litigating the Pillage of Cultural Property in American Courts: Chabad v. Russian Federation and Lessons Learned in the LOYOLA LAW REVIEW. Michael placed a slightly longer version of this article in the CAMBRIDGE INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF CULTURAL PROPERTY.

Michael co-authored an amicus brief on the legacy of the Nuremberg trials before the 2nd Circuit in Kiobel v. Royal Dutch Petroleum Co.

In November, Michael presented “How the Courts Failed Germany: Law, Justice and the Holocaust” in a program organized for California judges at UC-Irvine by the Judicial Council of California and the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. In October, Michael presented “Armenian Genocide and Then What?: The Law, Ethics and Politics of Making Amends” at a conference on Armenian Genocide and Reparations at UCLA.

TOM BELL published Commentary on Predicting Crime in the ARIZONA LAW REVIEW, Graduated Consent in Contract and Tort Law: Toward a Theory of Justification in the CASE WESTERN LAW REVIEW, and Implementing Prediction Markets in Government in the WHITE HOUSE OSTP OCCASIONAL PAPERS (STPI 2010). Tom appeared on reason.tv., speaking about “A Teacher's Strike in Paradise.” Tom also presented “Libertarian-But Not Originalist!-Constitutionalism” at the 2010 Students for Liberty Southern California Regional Conference, held in October at Pepperdine University.

DENIS BINDER published Lessons From BP's Emergency Action Plan in Action, in the ENVIRONMENTAL LAW REPORTER Symposium issue on the Deepwater Horizon Disaster.

DANIEL BOGART is co-editor of FRIEDMAN ON LEASES, and published supplement #13 to that treatise. Danny was also selected to serve as co-chair of a committee set up to explore the creation of a transactions competition by the American College of Real Estate Lawyers.

Danny traveled to Beijing, China in June and presented “The Doctrine of Good Faith in American Real Estate Transactions” at the Sino-U.S. Conference on Real Estate Law, held at Renmin University School of Law.

HEIDI BROWN was a panelist at the Expert Witness Summit for Thomson-Reuters September in Eagan, Minnesota. Heidi also gave a booth presentation on “Creative Alternative Dispute Resolution for the Construction Industry” at the Construction Super Conference in San Francisco, CA in December.

TIMOTHY A. CANOVA published the chapter The Washington Consensus and the Limits of Citizen Participation, in DEMOCRATIC CITIZENSHIP AND WAR (Routledge). He also published The Federal Reserve That We Need, in The American Prospect (Nov. 2010) and No Affirmative Action for Conservatives, in the Los Angeles Daily Journal on Oct. 28, 2010.

In June, Tim presented “Central Bank Paradigms and Constitutional Moments Lost” at the 2010 Summer Research Seminar at The Institute for Constitutional History at George Washington University School of Law. He also presented “Scheduling to Influence Program, Policy, and Campus Culture” at the American Bar Association’s Associate Dean’s Conference. Tim was a panelist on “The Color of the Economic Crisis: Exploring the Downturn from the Bottom Up” LatCrit XV Conference in Denver in October and presented “Renewing Democracy After Citizens United: Reforming Legal Fictions and Corporate Realities” at the Nexus Annual Symposium at Chapman University School of Law in October.

ANTHONY T. (“TOM”) CASO filed amicus briefs in the United States Supreme Court on behalf of the Center for Constitutional Jurisprudence in AEP v. Connecticut, Arizona Christian Tuition Organization v. Winn, and Siefert v. Alexander. Tom also filed an amicus brief in the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in Native Village of Kivalina v. ExxonMobile, Inc.

Tom debated Professor Rosenthal on “Right of Conscience Laws” as part of the ADL Civil Rights Debate series in September.

MARISA CIANCIARULO serves on the board of Concern America, a local nonprofit that was awarded Chapman’s Albert Schweitzer Award for Excellence for their humanitarian work around the world. Marisa has been working with Chapman faculty and administrators to get the Chapman community more involved with Concern America.

Marisa has spoken throughout the year to various local community groups and provided CLE trainings on immigration issues.

KATHERINE DARMER published GOP Candidates and Prop 8 in the Orange County Register on August 9, 2010, and Will of the People Irrelevant Under Federal Constitution in the Los Angeles Daily Journal in August 10, 2010.

Katherine presented “Hostility Based Spending: The Continuing Influence of Scalian Anti-Gay Rhetoric on Law and Politics” at Lat Crit XV, in October in Denver. She gave an introduction to her forthcoming book, NATIONAL SECURITY, CIVIL LIBERTIES AND THE WAR ON TERROR at the Southwest Criminal Law Conference in August. Katherine was a panelist for “Intersections: Sexuality, Gender and Race” as part of Chapman University's Diversity Week in November. Katherine was also a featured speaker on marriage equality at the Irvine United Congregational Church in October; OC Pride Main Stage on August 14, 2010, the Decision Day Rally in Santa Ana on August 4, 2010, and the Church of the Foothills in Santa Ana in July.

FRANK DOTI was among 300 law professors nominated for "Best Law Teacher." The Institute for Law Teaching & Learning will select 20 of the nominees to be honored in a published study conducted by the Institute. Frank was also honored at the California State Bar annual meeting in September 2010 as a certified tax law specialist for more than 20 years.

JOHN EASTMAN published the third edition of THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONAL ORDER: HISTORY, CASES, AND PHILOSOPHY, and a Book Review of Crisis and Command: A History of Executive Power from George Washington to George Bush, by John Yoo, in ENGAGE.

John presented on numerous panels, including: "The Politicization of International Law" at the Lawfare Conference on Western World Radio in January, 2011; "Arizona's SB1070" at the Federalist Society's Annual Faculty Conference in San Francisco in January, 2011; "Birthright Citizenship" sponsored by the Immigration Reform Legal Institute and the Annual Conference of the American Legislative Exchange Council in Washington, D.C.; "Full Faith & Credit and DOMA" at the Appellate Judges Education Institute at the SMU Dedman School of Law; "The Constitutionality of Federal Spending" at the Heritage Foundation's New Member's Conference in Washington, D.C.; "Is there any remaining limit to federal power?" at the Federalist Society National Lawyers Convention in Washington, D.C.; "Local Enforcement of Immigration Laws" at the Berkeley Journalism Institute Annual Conference; "The Price of Proposition 8 and Repercussions of Gay Marriage" at the West Coast Marriage Conference of the National Organization for Marriage in Napa; and "Media and the Law" at the Tenth Circuit Judicial Conference in Colorado Springs.

John gave numerous speeches, including: "The Culture of 'Me': Why Our Fiscal Crisis is a Moral Crisis" to the Orange County Chapter of Legatus; "The Looming Freedom of Conscience Crisis: Will We Confront a St. Thomas More Moment?" at St. Michael's Abbey in Mission Viejo; "Birthright Citizenship" to the University of Hawaii Student Chapter, Federalist Society, Honolulu, HI; "Judicial Review, Elections, and the Will of the People" to the Encino Oaks Republican Women Federation; "Government vs. The People" to the Malibu Salon; "Moral Foundations of Freedom and the Modern Threat to It" at Franciscan University on the occasion of receiving the St. Thomas More Award, Steubenville, OH; "Supreme Court Preview" to the Pittsburgh Lawyers Chapter of the Federalist Society; "Arizona's SB1070" to the University of Montana Federalist Society Student Chapter; "Supreme Court Preview" to the Puget Sound Lawyers Chapter of the Federalist Society; "The Immorality of Excessive Government Debt" to the Rancho Palos Verdes Republican Assembly; "The Truth About Jerry Brown" to the Western Conservative Political Action Conference in Newport Beach; "Supreme Court Preview" to the Ferguson Inn of Court in Orange; "California's Looming Financial and Constitutional Crisis" at the Oceanside Tea Party rally; Re-enactment of Ontario v. Quon for the Constitutional Rights Foundation of Orange County at Chapman University; "Birthright Citizenship" to the Brooklyn Law School Federalist Society; "The Looming Pension Crisis" to the 405/605 Conservative Forum in Los Alamitos, CA; "Federalism and the Commerce Clause" to the Pepperdine Law School Chapter of the Federalist Society; "The 14th Amendment's Citizenship Clause" to the Philadelphia Lawyers Chapter of the Federalist Society; “Health Care Litigation Update” at the Health Care Forum of the California Republican Party Convention in San Diego; “The Future of California” to the Irvine Republican Council; “The Culture of Me: Understanding California’s Fiscal Crisis as a Moral Crisis” to the South Bay of Los Angeles Chapter of Legatus; and “One Vision of Law and Order for California” to Prosperitus at UC-Irvine Merage School of Business.

John participated in a number of debates, including: “The ‘Gay Rights’ Appeals” at the San Francisco Bar Association; “Originalism or Living Constitution” at Golden Gate University Law School Federalist Society; “Wikileaks and National Security” at the World Affairs Council of Orange County; “Supreme Court Review” at the Council of Chief Judges Annual Conference in Napa, CA; “Proposition 8” at Pasadena Polytechnic; “The Government’s Duty to Defend” (podcast); “Arizona’s SB1070” at the Federal Bar Association of Tucson, AZ; “Supreme Court Review” at the Orange County Bar Association Appellate Section at the Pacific Club in Newport Beach; “Supreme Court Review” at USC Law School; “Marriage and Proposition 8” at Columbia Law School; “Is Arizona’s Immigration Law Constitutional?” at the University of California, Berkeley School of Law; “Supreme Court Review” at the Los Angeles Chapter of the Federalist Society and Libertarian Law Council; “Judicial Activism” at the UC Irvine Law School; and “Religion in the Desert and in the Law School” at the J. Reuben Clark Law Society, Orange County Chapter, held at Chapman University.

John was honored as the “Catholic Lawyer of the Year” by the St. Thomas More Law Society, Orange County Chapter in November. He also received the St. Thomas More Award from the Franciscan University of Steubenville, and the J. Reuben Clark Award from the J. Reuben Clark Society of Orange County in October. In June, John received the Citizen of the Year Award from the Boy Scouts of America, Orange County Council.

John was named to the Board of the Long Beach Symphony Orchestra, the Board of the Orange County Chapter of Legatus, and was invited to membership in the Council for National Policy.

In 2010, John ran for the Republican nomination for Attorney General of California.

ERNESTO HERNÁNDEZ-LÓPEZ

published Guantánamo as a ‘Legal Black Hole’: A Base for Expanding Space, Markets, and Culture in the UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO LAW REVIEW, and Guantánamo Outside and Inside the U.S.: Why is an American Base a Legal Anomaly? in the AMERICAN UNIVERSITY JOURNAL OF GENDER, SOCIAL POLICY & THE LAW (LatCrit XIV symposium). He also published an op-ed in the Orange County Register entitled Don’t Discourage Food Trucks.

Ernesto presented his research on “LA’s Taco Truck War” at LatCrit SNX 2010 Global Politics of Food Conference at the University Ibero-Americana in Mexico City. He also presented “Guantánamo and Post-Colonialism” at LatCrit XV at the University of Denver, the Third National People of Color Legal Scholarship Conference at Seton Hall University Law School, and the Law and Society Association Annual Meeting. Ernesto also moderated “Law and the Post-Colonial Condition” at the Law and Society Association Annual Meeting, and presented “Advice for Late Bloomers” at the Pipeline Program, Third National People of Color Legal Scholarship Conference and Seton Hall University Law School.

DONALD KOCHAN published Legal Mechanization of Corporate Social Responsibility Through Alien Tort Statute Litigation in the SANTA CLARA JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW.

On July 26, 2010, Donald had the lead opinion editorial in the Los Angeles Times, Luxury Needs No Remedy. His op-ed was later reprinted in more than a dozen newspapers nationwide, including: the Sunday editions of the Dallas Morning News, the Cleveland Plain-Dealer, the St. Petersburg Times, the Deseret News, the Pittsburgh Tribune-Review, the Denver Post, the Akron Beacon Journal, the Athens Banner Herald, the Juneau Empire, and others. Donald published Don't Let Your Bubble Cross My Bubble, a primer on the legal concept of externalities, as the lead perspective column in the Los Angeles Daily Journal on July 27, 2010. In June, his perspective column Call to Repeal the Seventeenth Amendment also was published in the Los Angeles Daily Journal.

Donald appeared on KUCI public radio's "The Docket" in July to discuss the U.S. Constitution's Seventeenth Amendment and calls for repeal.

MICHAEL LANG published Tax Planning Patents, BNA Tax Management Portfolio No. 618; Index to Federal Tax Articles, Summer and Fall 2010 Supplements; Tax Planning Patents Dodge a Potentially Fatal Bullet in Bilski, BNA Tax Library Commentary posted on-line in July 2010; and Practical Impacts of Bilski for Tax Planning Patents: No Prohibition but Judicial Suspicion, Rampant Uncertainty, and Increased Calls for Congressional and Regulatory Reform, BNA Tax Library.

Michael presented at various venues, including: Look Homeward Angel: Hot Issues for Homeowners at the ABA Section of Taxation Meeting, Committee on Individual and Family Taxation (organizer and speaker on Current Home Office Issues) in Washington, DC in May; Ethics and Circular 230 Issues Encountered in Connection with Tax Patents at the ABA Section of Taxation Meeting, Task Force on Patented Tax Strategies, Washington, DC; Hot Topics and Current Developments in Circular 230, ABA Section of Taxation Tax Link Live Teleconference; "Beyond the Basics: Understanding Financial Statements for Tax Lawyers" at the ABA Joint Fall Meeting with the Section of Taxation and Real Property, Trust & Estate Law Trust & Estate Division, Committee on Tax Practice Management in Toronto; "Coping with Bilski" for the BNA Tax Management Income Tax Advisory Board in New York in October; "What the Tax Bar Should Know About Tax Patents Today" for the Orange County Bar Tax Law Section in December; and "Hot Topics and Current Developments in Circular 230" on June 2, 2010 for the ABA Section of Taxation Tax Link Live Teleconference, a nationally broadcast ethics program.

Michael has been appointed to the BNA Tax Management Income Tax Advisory Board and continues as Vice-Chair of the Section of Taxation's Committee on Tax Practice Management, as a member of the Nominations Committee and the Professional Services Committee, as well as various substantive committees.

AMY PEIKOFF published Pragmatism and Privacy, in the NYU JOURNAL OF LAW & LIBERTY.

RICHARD E. REDDING published Without a Prayer?: Spirituality and Law School Performance – A Reply to Professor Taylor, in the CALIFORNIA WESTERN LAW REVIEW; Parent Training, in the ENCYCLOPEDIA OF ADOLESCENCE (2011); and Motivating Students to Read for Class: A Practical Tool, in TECHNIQUES FOR TEACHING LAW (Carolina Academic Press 2011).

Richard was elected a Fellow in the prestigious Association for Psychological Science, for his "sustained outstanding contributions to the science of psychology.” Richard also has been appointed Professor of Psychology in the Schmid College of Science at Chapman University.

Richard was elected to membership in The Cosmos Club. Established in 1878, the Cosmos Club elects individuals distinguished in science, literature and the arts. Among its members have been three Presidents, two Vice Presidents, a dozen Supreme Court justices, 32 Nobel Prize winners, 56 Pulitzer Prize winners, and 45 recipients of the Presidential Medal of Freedom.

Richard served as a reviewer for the JOURNAL OF EMPIRICAL LEGAL STUDIES and MACMILLAN PRESS, and continues to serve on the editorial boards of BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES & THE LAW; CRIMINAL JUSTICE & BEHAVIOR; the JOURNAL OF CHILD & FAMILY STUDIES; PSYCHOLOGY, PUBLIC POLICY & LAW; and YOUTH VIOLENCE & JUVENILE JUSTICE.

Richard delivered talks at Georgetown, UC Hastings, UC Berkeley, and the University of San Francisco law schools, discussing his book, THE POLITICALLY CORRECT UNIVERSITY. He also spoke at the Los Angeles Literary Café and appeared on the Hugh Hewitt radio show and local PBS television. His op-ed, It's Diverse if You're Liberal, on the topic appeared in the Los Angeles Times in October 2010, and was later reprinted in other newspapers nationwide.

RONALD ROTUNDA published Trying to Codify Caperton in the MCGEORGE LAW REVIEW; Lawyers: Why We Are Different and Why We Are the Same, in the AKRON LAW REVIEW; Constitutionalizing Judicial Ethics in the UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS LAW REVIEW; and Resolving Client Conflicts by Hiring “Conflicts Counsel” in the HASTINGS LAW JOURNAL.

Ron published new editions of CONSTITUTIONAL LAW (Thomson/West), LEGAL ETHICS: THE LAWYER'S DESKBOOK ON PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY (ABA-Thomson/West), PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY: A STUDENT'S GUIDE (ABA-Thomson/West), and PRINCIPLES OF CONSTITUTIONAL LAW (West-Thomson/Reuters).

Ron also filed a brief in Comer v. Murphy Oil USA (5th Cir. 2010).

Ron published What Can Congress Make You Do?, in the Orange County Register, May 23, 2010; Birthright Citizenship Benefits the Country, in the Chicago Tribune, Sept. 16, 2010; What Are D.C. Police Doing Enforcing Shariah Law?, in Pajamas Media, Sept. 16, 2010; A New Look at the Federal Suit against Arizona's Immigration Law; Pajamas Media, Oct. 5, 2010; The Point of No Return, in the Washington Times, Oct. 10, 2010; and Can Congress Ban People from Threatening to Burn The Quran?, in the Atlanta Journal-Constitution, Oct. 14, 2010.

Ron presented “The Role of the California Fair Political Practices Commission: More than Regulations, Investigations, and Fines” at the Quarterly Meeting of the Independent Special Districts of Orange County; “Constitutional Challenges to the New Medical Insurance Law” at the University of LaVerne College of Law; and “The Commerce Clause and President Obama's Medical Insurance” at the University of Southern California School of Law, sponsored by the Medical Law Society and the Federalist Society of Southern California Law School.

He also made radio and TV appearances, including: “The Constitutionality of ObamaCare” on WTKF-FM in Moorehead City, NC with Lockwood Phillips; “The Unconstitutionality of ObamaCare and the Fed's Motion to Dismiss the National Lawsuit Against It” with Michael McSorley on KRMS-AM (Missouri); he discussed the NFIB (National Federation of Independent Business) constitutional challenge to ObamaCare on “Talkback” with Chuck Wilder; he discussed the NFIB ObamaCare lawsuit and the Fed response on “Talkline” and on “58 Live with Mike and Rick” on WCHS-AM (Charleston, WV); he discussed ObamaCare’s individual mandate on “The Georgene Rice Show” on KPDQ AM/FM (Portland, OR); he discussed the Second Amendment on WDUN (Gainesville, GA), KOGO (San Diego, CA), and KMJ (Fresno, CA); he spoke with Troy Derengowski about Howard Dean on ObamaCare (TroyD@kicks96.com); and he discussed a Florida case and ObamaCare with host Jessica Curtis on WERC (Birmingham, AL).

As a Commissioner of the California Fair Political Practices Commission, Ron participated in monthly hearings in Sacramento, where they decided cases, imposed fines, recommended that proposed bills be enacted or rejected, and promulgated rules governing California elections.

KYNDRA ROTUNDA published Unlawful Command Influence, Enemy Combatants and Military Commissions in the MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW, and Evaluation and Analysis of Present Policies Regarding Detention and Trial of Enemy Combatants, in the AKRON JOURNAL OF CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND POLICY. Kyndra is also the author of the casebook SERVING THOSE WHO SERVE: CASES AND MATERIALS ON MILITARY AND VETERANS LAW (Thomson/West).

Kyndra debated “Detention, Interrogation, Trial of Enemy Combatants: Are the U.S. Policies Legal?” at the University of Akron School of Law, and served as a guest speaker for a variety of organizations in the fall, including: the Saint Thomas More Society and the San Clemente Republican Women’s Federation. She was the keynote speaker at the annual conference of the California Federation of Republican Women. Kyndra was also interviewed for a forthcoming documentary on post traumatic stress syndrome among Iraq and Afghanistan War Veterans.

To date, students working in the AMVETS Legal Clinic, under Kyndra’s direction, have recovered $4.4 million for their clients. Kyndra was recently appointed as the Executive Director and Associate Professor of Military and International Law at the new Chapman University Military Law & Policy Institute.

LARRY ROSENTHAL published First Amendment Investigations and the Inescapable Pragmatism of the Common Law of Free Speech in the INDIANA LAW JOURNAL, and Pragmatism, Originalism, Race, and the Case Against Terry v. Ohio in the TEXAS TECH LAW REVIEW (Symposium on Fourth Amendment Search and Seizure).

Larry debated Professor Joyce Lee Malcolm of George Mason Law School on the Supreme Court’s decision in McDonald v. City of Chicago. The debate was published in Colloquy, Second Amendment Plumbing after McDonald, in the NORTHWESTERN LAW REVIEW.

NANCY SCHULTZ presented “Lawyers as Peacemakers” in August at the Second Annual Congress of the International ADR Society. In October, she visited the University of Louisville as the Distinguished Scholar in Professionalism and Legal Skills, and presented on the incorporation of lawyering skills throughout the curriculum.

WENDY M. SEIDEN presented “Child Custody, Visitation, and Domestic Violence: Women’s and Children’s Perspectives,” in a National Webinar sponsored by The Muskie School, University of Southern Maine in November 2010.

JOHN TEHRANIAN published the book INFRINGEMENT NATION: COPYRIGHT 2.0 AND YOU (Oxford University Press), and Parchment, Pixels and Personhood: Users Rights and the IP (Identity Politics) of IP (Intellectual Property) in the UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO LAW REVIEW.

John presented “Users Rights and the Identity Politics of Intellectual Property” at the 10th Annual Intellectual Property Scholars Conference at the UC Berkeley Law School, and at the Stanford Program in Law, Science and Technology at Stanford Law School. He also presented “Selective Racialization: Middle Eastern Identity and the Law, Examining the Experiences of Iranian-American Youth: An Ecological Approach” at the American Psychological Association Annual Convention in San Diego, California.

John was the Law School’s nominee for the 2010 Valerie Scudder Award for Excellence in Teaching, Research and Service. John was also named as one of Orange County’s “Top Lawyers” and one of Orange County’s “Top Five Intellectual Property Lawyers” and “Top Five Litigators” by OC Metro (August, 2010).

Administrators, Law Librarians and Staff

DAVID FINLEY published California’s Jury Policy Raises Serious Questions About Juror Privacy in the Courtroom in the Los Angeles Daily Journal on December 3, 2010. David also published the 2010 updates to his practice guides: CALIFORNIA DISCOVERY CITATIONS (Rutter Group Thomson/West) with Monique Leahy; CALIFORNIA LAW AND MOTION AUTHORITIES (Rutter Group Thomson/West) with Douglas Parker and Lori Maze; CALIFORNIA LAW AND MOTION MODEL FORMS (Rutter Group Thomson/West) with Douglas Parker and Lori Maze; CALIFORNIA MOTIONS IN LIMINE (Rutter Group Thomson/West); and, FEDERAL MOTIONS IN LIMINE (Rutter Group Thomson/West) with Stephanie Hoit Lee. In October 2010, David was named lead author of CALIFORNIA SUMMARY JUDGMENT AND RELATED TERMINATION MOTIONS (Rutter Group Thomson/West), a book he created and previously published.

LORIN GEITNER published a series of articles in the Orange County Lawyer magazine: Merry Season's Controversy (January 2011); Eruv and Establishment (July 2010); and Law and Religion -- The First Amendment and the Problems of Alienation (February 2010). Lorin recently completed a Master's degree in Religion from Claremont Graduate University. His thesis, “Common Features in the Development of Three World Religions,” is an examination of the religions of Manichaeism, Sikhism, and Bahai.