

RES IPSA LOQUITUR FACULTY NEWS

Chapman University School of Law
Spring 2008 Faculty Update

Compiled by the Office of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs
Available online at: www.chapman.edu/law/news/resipsa.asp

SPRING EDITION

MAY 2008

DEEPA BADRINARAYANA will publish an article, The Emerging Constitutional Challenge of Climate Change: India in Perspective, in the Fordham Environmental Law Journal.

Deepa recently presented her work at several forums: the Tenth International Wildlife Law Conference at the University of Granada in Spain; the Conference on Law, Poverty and Environmental Equality at the University of Valparaiso School of Law, and a Symposium on Transnational Corporate Responsibility for the 21st Century at George Washington University School of Law.

MICHAEL J. BAZYLER recently published an article, Contemporary Legal Lessons from the Holocaust, in the Jewish Political Studies Review, and In the Footsteps of Raphael Lemkin, in Genocide Studies and Prevention. An interview with Michael, Unfinished Business: Holocaust Restitution, was published in Reform Judaism.

Michael presented the keynote address at the "Transitional Justice" conference and was the Pierre Genest Visiting Fellow at Osgoode Hall Law School, York University, Toronto, Canada in February. He presented on, "Jewish Treasures in the Former Soviet Union: Chabad v. Russian Federation," at a Harvard Law School conference on Looted Art. He also presented a paper, "Genocide and Theft," at "The President's Forum on International Human Rights: Modern Genocides and Global Responsibility," at California State University at Long Beach.

Michael organized the Commemoration of the 60th Anniversary of the Einsatzgruppen Trial Verdicts at Nuremberg, and Tribute to Benjamin Ferencz, Chief Prosecutor, at the American Society of International Law (ASIL) Annual Meeting in Washington, D.C. in April.

TOM W. BELL recently published Codifying Copyright's Misuse Defense in the Utah Law Review and Copyright as Intellectual Property Privilege in the Syracuse Law Review. His article, The Legality of Private Prediction Markets Under U.S. Law, was recently published in the Journal of Prediction Markets.

Tom presented at a roundtable discussion on Liberty, Property, and Native America at the Collective Intelligence Foo Camp, Google & O'Reilly Media at the Googleplex in Mountain View, California in February.

Tom will soon take part in an online debate on intellectual property policy sponsored by the Cato Institute as part of its "Cato Unbound" series.

In February, the Orange County Register published Waves propel his book project, an article on Tom's book-writing strategy. Tom is also a contributing writer to the new O.C. Register's "College Life" blog, and he was recently spotted strumming his guitar in an "open mike" night at a local restaurant.

MELISSA M. BERRY co-authored an article with Professors Donald Kochan and Matthew Parlow entitled, Much Ado About Pluralities: Pride and Precedent Amidst the Cacophony of Concurrences, and Re-Percolation After Rapanos, soon to be published in the Virginia Journal of Social Policy & Law.

DANIEL B. BOGART was recently elected Chair of the Real Estate Transactions Section of the Association of American Law Schools (AALS). He was also named as a Fellow of the premier and highly selective American College of Real Estate Lawyers (ACREL).

Danny has co-authored the forthcoming 5th edition of California Real Estate Finance, Cases and Materials (Carolina Academic Press).

Danny organized and hosted a major Property Law Workshop at Chapman in February entitled, Property Transactions and Transitions in an Age of Globalization. The intensive two-day workshop, which featured more than twenty national and international scholars, was jointly sponsored by the Center for Property, Citizenship and Social Entrepreneurism of the Syracuse University College of Law. Danny also brought the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals to Chapman University Law School to hold official hearings in the Appellate Courtroom on January 25, 2008.

TIMOTHY A. CANOVA was recently named to the American Branch of the International Law Association (ABILA) Committee on Multilateralism and the Accountability of International Organizations to review rule of law and governance of the International Monetary Fund and World Bank.

Tim's presentation, Non-State Actors and the International Institutional Order, was published in the Proceedings of the 101st Annual Meeting of the American Society of International Law (ASIL). Tim also presented in April at the 102nd Annual Meeting of ASIL where he debated the deputy general counsel of the International Monetary Fund on whether international financial institutions repress economic development.

Tim was quoted on the crisis in financial markets in numerous newspapers and other venues, including the San Diego Union Tribune, the Orange County Register, the Atlanta Journal Constitution, Forbes.com and TheStreet.com.

JENNY CAREY presented a paper, along with Professors Breana Frankel and Stephanie Hartley, at the 2008 Rocky Mountain Regional Legal Writing Conference in Salt Lake City in March. Their presentation was entitled Generation Wh(Y)? Teaching Legal Research and Writing to a Skeptical, Result-Oriented, Tech-Savvy, Multi-Tasking Generation.

MARISA CIANCIARULO was a panelist at the 2008 AALS Clinical Conference in Tucson in May on a panel entitled "'Can I Have a New Clinic Partner?': How Institutional Culture Affects the Risks We Take and the Mistakes We Make in Dealing with Students, Deans, Colleagues and the Community."

Marisa will present her work in progress, Battered Women as Refugees: Defining the Social Group through Psychology, at the 2008 Clinical Teachers Workshop in Miami in May and at the 2008 SEALS Conference in Palm Beach in July.

KATHERINE DARMER will publish an article, Scalian Skepticism and the Sixth Amendment in the Twilight of the Rehnquist Court, in the University of San Francisco Law Review.

Katherine was a speaker at a “Hot Topics” panel at annual AALS meeting in New York on January 5, 2008: Of Guns and Militias: Just What Does the Second Amendment Guarantee? Reflections on the Supreme Court’s Grant of Certiorari in District of Columbia v. Heller.

Katherine appeared several times on KDOC-TV Daybreak OC as legal commentator on the indictment of Sheriff Carona. She provided radio commentary on mlb.com on the Mitchell Report regarding steroid use in baseball and the Barry Bond indictment. She was quoted by mlb.com, the Los Angeles Times and the Seattle Times regarding the Congressional testimony of Roger Clemens. She was also a legal commentator on the play Twelve Angry Men, performed at the Orange County Performing Arts Center in February.

BOBBY L. DEXTER presented a recent paper, Serfs at the Mercy of a Hungry Beast: Aggressive Regressivity, Private Equity, and the Quandary of the St. Luke Imperative at the 66th Annual Conference of the Midwest Political Science Association in Chicago in April.

Bobby’s article, Shock, Awe, and Expropriation: Casualty Loss Deductions under Section 165 and the Act of State Doctrine, was recently published in the Tulane Law Review.

KURT EGGERT was named as a member of the Executive Committees of the AALS Clinical Section and the AALS Section on Financial Institutions and Consumer Services.

In April, Kurt presented at a conference on Gambling in Society hosted by the Alberta Gaming Research Institute and the University of Alberta at the Banff Centre in Banff, Alberta, Canada. In May, he presented a paper at the Seton Hall Law School Subprime Lending Conference, and was a moderator and presenter at the University of Houston Law Center Conference on Teaching Consumer Law.

Kurt testified to the California Assembly Committee on Banking and Finance in April on two separate bills dealing with the subprime mortgage crisis.

Kurt was quoted in numerous newspapers and other venues on the crisis in housing and credit markets, including the Los Angeles Times, Money Magazine, The Guardian (UK), MarketWatch from Dow Jones, the Christian Science Monitor, Reuters, Forbes.com, the Daily Times of Pakistan, and McClatchy. He was also interviewed in a story that appeared on Marketplace, from American Public Radio, about the Treasury Department's new plans to reorganize the nation's financial regulators.

Kurt’s work was also cited in articles appearing in the Fordham Law Review, Cardozo Law Review, Business Lawyer, Banking and Financial Services Policy, and Illinois Practice Series.

JOHN EASTMAN published two articles based on his Congressional testimony, Born in the U.S.A.? Re-assessing Birthright Citizenship in the Wake of 9/11, in the Richmond Law Review and the Texas Review of Law & Politics. His article, Standing Up for the Constitution: How the Court's Restrictive View of Standing Threatens Limited Government, was published in the Regent Law Review. His contribution on The Spending Clause will soon be published in the Oxford Encyclopedia of Legal History.

John was also published in the Loyola Los Angeles Law Review in his Debate on Same-Sex Marriage with Kenneth Starr and David Codell.

John presented his work on Birthright Citizenship as a panelist at the ABA Section of International Law, ABA Midyear meeting in Los Angeles in February, and at a conference on "Immigration and Citizenship" at the University of Oregon School of Law, Eugene in January.

John organized a Hot Topics Panel at the 2008 AALS Annual Convention, and spoke on that panel, "Of Guns and Militias: Just What Does the Second Amendment Guarantee? Reflections on the Supreme Court's Grant of Certiorari in District of Columbia v. Heller."

HILAL ELVER has published several recent book chapters, including International Environmental Law, Water and the Future in International Law and the Third World: Reshaping Justice, and Religious Freedom and Women's Rights: Evaluating the Decision of European Human Rights Court on Sahin v Turkey (Turkish) in Turkey's Headscarf Controversy.

Hilal also published an article, From Nuremberg to London: Is War in Iraq Constitute a Crimes against Peace? (Turkish) in the Journal of International Relations (Ankara, Turkey).

Hilal's article, Racializing Islam in the United States: Before and After 9/11, will be published in the Journal "Patterns of Prejudice."

Along with Richard Falk and Lisa Hajjar, Hilal has edited Human Rights: Critical Concepts Series (Routledge, 5 vols., 2008).

In April, Hilal presented on "Gender Politics in the Middle East" at the Future of the Middle East Conference at Santa Barbara City College; and on "Representation Matters: Muslim Women's Exclusion from Public Spaces," at an International Conference on Muslim, Race and the Public Space at Michigan State University.

RICHARD FALK was appointed Special Rapporteur for the Occupied Palestinian Territories for a three-year period by the United Nations Human Rights Council.

Richard has published several recent books, including Costs of War: International Law, the UN, and World Order After Iraq (Routledge, 2008); and International Law and the Third World: Reshaping Justice (Routledge, 2008) (ed. with B. Rajkrishnan & Jacqueline Stevens).

Along with Hilal Elver and Lisa Hajjar, Richard has edited, Human Rights: Critical Concepts Series (Routledge, 5 vols., 2008).

Richard recently lectured as the Leo Beck Professor at the Graduate School of International Studies at Denver University. He is also directing research projects on 'Legality & Legitimacy' and 'The World in 2030' for the United Nations University and Orfalea Center at the University of California at Santa Barbara.

BREANA FRANKEL will publish an article, Oy Vey! The Bernstein Exception: Rethinking the Doctrine in the Wake of Constitutional Abuses, Corporate Malfeasance and the War on Terror, in the George Washington International Law Review.

STEPHANIE HARTLEY presented a paper, along with Professors Jenny Carey and Breana Frankel, at the 2008 Rocky Mountain Regional Legal Writing Conference in Salt Lake City in March. Their presentation was entitled Generation Wh(Y)? Teaching Legal Research and Writing to a Skeptical, Result-Oriented, Tech-Savvy, Multi-Tasking Generation.

KATHY Z. HELLER has appeared in the credits of several recent films, including as producer of *At Issue: Immigration, a documentary written and directed by Jon Wilkman, and for her legal work in Chicano Rocks, The Defector, To Touch the Soul, 1000 Journals, and Dark Matter (directed by Shi-Zheng Chen, and starring Meryl Streep and Aidan Quinn).

ERNESTO HERNÁNDEZ-LÓPEZ will publish, Law, Food, and Culture: Mexican Corn's National Identity Cooked in 'Tortilla Discourses' post-TLC/NAFTA, in the St. Thomas Law Review, and Global Migration and Imagined Citizenship: Examples from Slavery and Chinese Exclusion and when Questioning Birthright Citizenship, in the Texas Wesleyan Law Review.

Ernesto's chapter, Sovereignty along el Río Bravo/the Rio Grande, was published in the book, The Culture, Politics and Economics of Migration and the Mexican-American Border (Palgrave Macmillan, 2007).

Ernesto recently presented his work on Law, Food, and Culture at the 11th Annual Conference, Association of the Study of Law, Culture and the Humanities (ASLCH) at the University of California at Berkeley; and his post-colonial examination of jurisdiction and Guantánamo at a Joint Conference of the Western Law Teachers of Color and Conference of Asian Pacific American Law Faculty at the University of Denver Sturm College of Law, Colorado.

SCOTT HOWE co-authored the second edition of a book entitled, Understanding Capital Punishment Law (2d. ed.) (forthcoming 2008) (Lexis/Nexis) (with Linda Carter and Ellen Kreitzberg).

Scott will also be publishing a book chapter entitled, "Roper v. Simmons: Abolishing the Death Penalty for Juvenile Offenders in the Wake of International Consensus," in Capital Punishment Stories (J. Steiker & J. Blume eds. 2008) (Foundation Press).

Scott has spoken recently at numerous venues, including a presentation, Eleven Days from Execution, at USC Law School in connection with the appearance of his former death-row client, Kerry Max Cook; as a panelist on Execution by Lethal Injection that was sponsored by the Chapman University student chapter of Amnesty International and was held at the Folino Theatre at Chapman University; and as part of a panel on criminal justice that followed the presentation of "Twelve Angry Men" at the Orange County Performing Arts Center in Costa Mesa.

JOHN HALL published a number of opinion essays dealing with human rights violations in the Philippines, Cambodia, and China, in the Los Angeles Daily Journal, Wall Street Journal Asia, the Christian Science Monitor, the International Herald Tribune, and Investor's Business Daily.

John presented his work to the Southeast Asia Forum at the Walter H. Shorenstein Asia-Pacific Research Center at Stanford University in April.

DONALD J. KOCHAN has co-authored an article with Professor Matthew Parlow and Melissa Berry entitled, Much Ado About Pluralities: Pride and Precedent Amidst the Cacophony of Concurrences – and Re-Percolation After Rapanos, to be published in the Virginia Journal of Social Policy &

Law. Donald's article on soft power and translations in the war on terror was recently published in the West Virginia Law Review. Donald has presented a number of his works this spring at the Regent University School of Law, Case Western Reserve University School of Law, the University of San Diego School of Law, and the University of Indiana-Bloomington School of Law.

Donald also served as a discussant at the Searle Center Research Roundtable on "The Expansion of Liability under Public Nuisance" at the Northwestern University School of Law, and participated in a debate on "The Law and Economics of Redevelopment: Kelo and Beyond" at the Cornell Law School.

MICHAEL B. LANG was elected Chair-Elect of the Association of American Law Schools (AALS) Section on Post-Graduate Legal Education.

Mike was also appointed to the American Bar Association (ABA) Section Officers Conference/Center for Professional Responsibility Joint Committee on Ethics and Professionalism Task Force on Patenting Legal Strategies.

Mike presented at numerous forums including the ABA Section of Taxation, 2008 Midyear Meeting, Committee on Tax Practice Management. Mike also presented on patented tax strategies at the University of Florida Fredric G. Levin College of Law Graduate Tax Program Enrichment Speaker Series in March. In addition to his full-time teaching at Chapman, Mike also taught a course on Corporate Tax at Loyola Law School of Los Angeles.

Mike has published continuing supplements of Index to Federal Tax Articles (Thomson RIA) with Isa Lang.

FRANCINE LIPMAN will soon publish Valuing Retirement Dollars: A Model for Lower-Income Retirees in the Elder Law Journal.

Francine was a panelist on "Blogging as a Class Participation Learning Tool" at the ABA-Tax Section Mid-Year Meeting in Lake Las Vegas, Nevada. She recently presented her work on "Taxing Undocumented Immigrants" at several major forums, including to a conference on Undocumented Hispanic Immigrants in the United States at the University of North Texas.

Francine also presented her work on "The Graying of Poverty: The Rollercoaster Ride of Increasing Debt and Decreasing Retirement Benefits" at the conference on Law, Poverty and Economic Inequality, at Valparaiso University School of Law in April. In March, she presented her recently published work on "Shrinking Boomer Retirement Benefits" at the Thirty-Seventh Annual Western Decision Science Institute Meeting in San Diego, California.

LISA LITWILLER published an article entitled A SLAPP in the Face: Why Principles of Federalism Suggest that Federal District Courts Should Stop Turning the Other Cheek in the inaugural issue of the Journal of Court Innovation, a peer reviewed journal associated with the New York State Judicial Institute, the Center for Court Innovation and the Pace Law School.

CELESTINE RICHARDS McCONVILLE was a panelist at the Chapman Law Review Symposium, "Publicity Rights in Bytes: Contemporary Issues in Entertainment & Sports Law," in February. Celestine recently presented to the St. Thomas More Society a lecture on "Legal Ethics, the Law and the Pursuit of Morality."

HENRY S. NOYES published an article entitled, Good Cause Is Bad Medicine For The New E-Discovery Rules, in the Harvard Journal of Law & Technology, and soon to be republished in full in the Federal Rules Decisions (F.R.D.) national reporter.

Henry recently taught a course on “The Internet and Emerging Jurisdictional Issues” at the Judicial Council Education and Research’s Trial Court Judicial Attorney’s Institute before approximately 120 staff attorneys who work for courts located throughout California.

MATTEW PARLOW has written three articles soon to be published. The first, co-authored with Professors Donald Kochan and Melissa Berry and entitled, Much Ado About Pluralities: Pride and Precedent Amidst the Cacophony of Concurrences, and Re-Percolation After Rapanos, will appear in the Virginia Journal of Social Policy & Law.

Matt’s article, Greenwashed? Developers, Environmental Consciousness, and the Case of Playa Vista, will be published in the Boston College Environmental Law Review. His article, Progressive Policy-Making on the Local Level: Rethinking Traditional Notions of Federalism, will be published in the Temple Political and Civil Rights Law Review. Matt’s entry on Loretto v. Teleprompter Manhattan CATV Corp., 458 U.S. 419 (1982) will be published in the Encyclopedia of the United States Constitution (ed., David Schultz).

Matt presented his work on “Ticket Sales and the Internet” at the Villanova Sports and Entertainment Law Journal Symposium on “Sports and Technology: Internet Subs Out Traditional Media” in February. Matt also co-founded the Southern California Junior Law Faculty Workshop Series, which held its second workshop this spring at the Chapman University School of Law.

AMY L. PEIKOFF recently published an article, Beyond Reductionism: Reconsidering the Right to Privacy, in the New York University Journal of Law & Liberty.

RICHARD E. REDDING has published several articles, including It’s Really About Sex: Same-Sex Marriage, Lesbian Parenting, and the Psychology of Disgust, in the Duke Journal of Gender Law & Policy.

Richard published Training the Parents of Juvenile Offenders: State of the Art and Recommendations for Service Delivery (with Carrie Mulford) in the peer-reviewed Journal of Child & Family Studies.

Richard published Popular Self-Help Books for Anxiety, Depression, and Trauma: How Scientifically Grounded and Useful are They? (with Herbert, Forman, & Guadiano) in the peer-reviewed journal, Professional Psychology: Research & Practice. He also published Mental Disorders and the Law (with Daniel Murrie) in the Encyclopedia of Law and Society: American and Global Perspectives.

LARRY ROSENTHAL published a lead article, Does Due Process Have an Original Meaning? On Originalism, Due Process, Procedural Innovation . . . and Parking Tickets, in the Oklahoma Law Review.

Larry filed an amicus brief in the United States Supreme Court on the pro-competitive effects of patent licensing agreement on behalf of Papst Licensing GBH in the case of Quanta Computers, Inc. v. LG Electronics.

KYNDRA ROTUNDA presented her work on the Guantanamo trials at the Seattle University School of Law in February and to the Republican National Lawyers Association Annual Convention in Washington, D.C. in May.

Kyndra's book, Honor Bound: Inside the Guantanamo Trials, will soon be published by Carolina Academic Press. She has published several recent essays related to the book, including in the Christian Science Monitor and the Wall Street Journal.

Kyndra was recently promoted to the rank of Major in the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General Corps, Individual Ready Reserve.

RONALD ROTUNDA has published the last four volumes of his six volume Treatise on Constitutional Law: Substance and Procedure (Thomson/West, 4th ed. 2008) (with John E. Nowak). He has also published Problems and Materials on Professional Responsibility (Foundation Press, 10th ed. 2008) (with Thomas D. Morgan).

Ron's work remains among the most widely cited in the country. His scholarship was cited in dozens of recent law review articles, including such leading journals as Columbia Law Review, California Law Review, Texas Law Review, New York University Law Review, and William & Mary Law Review. His work was also cited in federal and state judicial decisions across the country.

Ron filed a Petition for Certiorari in St. John's United Church of Christ v. City of Chicago, 2008 WL 596048 (March 3, 2008), on behalf of St. John's Church.

On Feb. 27, Ron was nominated by President Bush to be a member of the Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board (PCLOB). The nomination, which is for an initial four-year term, was sent to the Senate.

KENNETH A. STAHL recently published an article, The Suburb As a Legal Concept: The Problem of Organization and the Fate of Municipalities in American Law, in the Cardozo Law Review.

RONALD STEINER recently published an article, Policy Oscillations in California's Law of Premises Liability, in the McGeorge Law Review. Ron also published Same-Sex Marriage in the Encyclopedia of Sex, Love and Culture: Vol. 6, Twentieth & Twenty-First Centuries (James T. Sears, ed., Greenwood Publishing Group, 2008).

Ron was recently a recipient of the Faculty Recognition Award, bestowed by the Chapman University Office of Student Life.

JOHN TEHRANIAN was awarded The Wiley W. Manuel Award for Pro Bono Legal Services by the Board of Governors of the State Bar of California in recognition of pro bono work on behalf of low income clients.

John published two articles, Selective Racialization: Middle-Eastern Identity and the Faustian Pact with Whiteness, in the Connecticut Law Review, and Infringement Nation: Copyright Reform and the Law/Norm Gap, in the Utah Law Review.

John presented on racial identification and classification at a symposium at the New York University School of Law in March. He also presented on Performing Orientalism, Inscribing Whiteness, to the Critical Race Studies Program at the UCLA Law School in April.

John was quoted in The Index, Harper's Monthly in January 2008, and was quoted and cited in Hearings on H.R. 4279, the Prioritizing Resources and Organization for Intellectual Property Act of 2007, United States House of Representatives, Committee on the Judiciary, Subcommittee on Courts, the Internet, and Intellectual Property, December 13, 2007.

John obtained a unanimous reversal and remand from the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in Rainwater v.

Alarcon, 2008 WL 510546 (9th Cir. 2008), a constitutional challenge to the State of California's administration, without informed consent, of medication that causes osteoporosis to involuntarily committed individuals (pro bono representation)

Carolyn made two presentations at Externships 4, a national conference for externship faculty in Seattle in February, one on the importance of student goal-setting, and the second as a panelist on strategies to publicize externship programs.

CAROLYN YOUNG has written an article, Harmful Error: How the Courts' Failure to Apply the Harmless Error Doctrine has Obstructed the ADA's Standing Spectators Rule, co-authored with Nina Golden, that was accepted for publication by the NYU Journal of Legislation & Public Policy.

ADMINISTRATORS, STAFF & LAW LIBRARIANS

CATHY ELLIOTT recently earned her Master's Degree in Library and Information Science from the San Jose State University.

TRACIE L. HALL will publish an article entitled, West Library Maintenance Agreement (LMA) plan in the May 2008 issue of Spectrum, the American Association of Law Librarian's (AALL's) monthly publication.

MARYAM ISLES made a presentation at the Pacific Association for Collegiate Registrars and Admission Officers (PACRAO) conference in Utah in November.

Maryam was elected to the Board of the National Network for Law School Officers (NNLSO). Thanks to Maryam, Chapman University will be hosting the annual NNLSO summer planning session this summer.

Maryam was awarded the 2008 Phenomenal Woman of Chapman University.

ISA LANG has published a book review of Marsha Baum's When Nature Strikes: Weather Disasters and the Law in the Law Library Journal. Isa has published continuing supplements of Index to Federal Tax Articles (Thomson RIA) with Micahel Lang.