Parking Reminder

As the undergraduate students return to campus this week please be aware that parking in the Barrera Parking Structure will fill up quickly. Remember that we all must share the limited number of parking spaces available in the parking structure. In the event that you are unable to locate parking in the Barrera Structure you may park in the Cypress Lot at the east end of Sycamore Ave., the parking lot around Dodge College of Film and Media Arts, or the Lastinger Parking Structure located under Wilson Football Field (entrance off Walnut Ave.). Please be advised that you may not park on the streets surrounding the university without a parking permit issued by the City of Orange. The Orange Police Department is vigilant in its parking enforcement around campus and will issue you a citation. Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.

St. Thomas More Society Seeks Students Leadership and Members

The St. Thomas More Society of Orange County is an independent organization sponsored by lawyers and judges who are practicing members of the Roman Catholic Church. The St. Thomas More Society provides opportunities for the Catholic legal community to strengthen their faith through education, fellowship, and prayer.

This organization gives you the opportunity to meet local lawyers and judges who share your values and gives you an opportunity to be involved in an organization named for one of the most heroic members of the legal profession in history.

Professor Mario Mainero is the advisor for the St. Thomas More Society, and he is looking for students to become both officers and members. If you are interested in becoming a member, please let him know by e-mailing him at mainerom@chapman.edu. He will be scheduling a meeting for interested members and for officer elections around Labor Day. Each year, members attend and support the Red Mass. This year, the Red Mass will be held on Monday, October 7, 2013, at Holy Family Cathedral—just down the street from us on Glassell.

If you want more information on the Society as it operates in Orange County, follow this link: http://www.stthomasmore.net.

Don’t Forget About the Back Door to Dean Kacer’s Office!
Welcome back to classes! If you would like to stop in and see Dean Kacer, remember that you can use the back door to the Dean’s Suite. So long as Dean Kacer’s door is open and she is not already talking to someone else, please feel free to stop by and say hello. Dean Kacer’s office is located in the Dean’s Suite on the third floor. The Dean’s Suite back door is the last door on the right before you enter the library wing of the building. Don’t be a stranger!

Don’t Have Your ID Card Yet? Lost Your ID Card?

All students are required by the University Code of Conduct to have and carry their University identification card. Also, your ID card is needed to gain access to the law school building after hours. A card reader is located on the back patio adjacent to the double sliding doors. In order to maintain the safety of those in the building as well as law school property after hours, please do not prop open any of the doors to the building. If you prop open the doors in the student lounge after hours an alarm will sound and Public Safety personnel will respond. Use your ID card instead. Thanks in advance for your cooperation.
