

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction

4

By Jayne Taylor Kacer

EDITOR'S NOTE

3

By Connor Smith
Chair of Publication

Introduction

40

By Professor Denis Binder

THE ARTICLES

THE SYMPOSIUM

ARE WE ON THE SAME PAGE?

6

Why a Feminist Reinterpretation of Copyright Law Would Afford Media Created by Women and Men a More Fulsome Legal Legitimacy
By Kevin El Khoury

DISASTER OF EPIC PROPORTIONS?

15

How Workers Are Fighting Despite Mandatory Arbitration and Class Waivers
By Chris Zatz

REFUSING TO RECOGNIZE REALITY

26

How a Stubborn Court Perpetuated Injustice in Alvarez
By Jay Hedges

THE TIES THAT BIND

32

Historical Trends of Racism in the Juvenile Justice System
By Ezra Graham Lintner

2019-2020 EXECUTIVE BOARD

64

CALL FOR PAPERS

67

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

68

PANEL ONE: THE COURTROOM

47

A look inside litigation that gets national attention. How to effectuate change using litigation, and identifying the powerful role that politics and public opinion have on the outcome of these efforts.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS by DOUG SMITH

48

Doug Smith, staff attorney at Public Counsel in Los Angeles, was behind SB 946, the Safe Sidewalk Vending Act. Using SB 946 as a case study, he explores community lawyering as a possible solution to homelessness.

PANEL TWO: THE COMMUNITY

61

Addresses the causes of displaced individuals and marginalized communities, and a discussion regarding the impact on the dignity of an individual.

PANEL THREE: THE CODE

62

A discussion regarding zoning reform: the necessary steps, the widespread impacts, and overcoming the biggest hurdles.