Professor Gibbs Seeking a Research Assistant
Professor Gibbs is hiring a research assistant to research and write concerning negotiation, alternative dispute resolution and the teaching of practical skills. The student would review journals and social science articles regarding modes of negotiation, developments in alternative dispute resolution and assist in the development of an article and materials on practical skills. The student should be in the second or third year. There are no perquisites other than curiosity. Hours are flexible and will vary up to 10 hours per week with a maximum of 19 with compensation based on the year in law school. Please email your resume to dgibbs@chapman.edu by September 12, 2013.

SBA Elections
SBA Elections will be held this week. Candidate statements of intent are posted on the corkboard outside room 236.

A Message from the Law Registrar’s Office
First year law students: Please join us for the information session on “Examination Procedures” on Thursday, September 12, from 12:00 noon – 12:45 p.m. in room 237. This session is mandatory for all first year students. We look forward to seeing you at the session. You may bring your lunch.

Attention 3Ls: Mandatory Bar Prep Meeting
All students planning to take either the February or July 2014 Bar Exam should attend the MANDATORY “Introduction to Bar Prep,” on Saturday, September 28, 2013, from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in Room 237. Professors Mainero, Bishop and Sommer, as well as the Executive Director of the State Bar, the Director of Testing, and others from the State Bar, will be there to guide you through the Bar Application Process, with special emphasis both on the exam itself and the Moral Character Application, as well as the courses and programs Chapman offers to its students and graduates to help them pass the bar exam. In addition, two representatives of the State Bar will be available afterward to meet privately with any students having personal, confidential concerns or questions regarding the Moral Character Application. Save the date, and make sure you are there.

2013-2014 Honor Council
The 2013-2014 Honor Council student members are:

Honor Council Committee: Professor Maria Cantilena, Faculty Chair; Catherine Conroy, Student Chair; Amanda Herman, Devin “Seamus” Crowley

APALSA General Meeting

Join us for our first Asian Pacific American Law Students Association (APALSA) meeting on Tuesday, September 3rd at 11:45am in Room 147 to learn about upcoming volunteer events and networking opportunities! Students of all backgrounds are welcome. Lunch will be provided! 1Ls and transfer students are also invited to participate in APALSA’s Big Sib Mentorship Program, a great resource for advice about adjusting to law school, study tips, and networking. If interested, please email your track number and name of your LRW professor to apalsachapman@gmail.com by Monday September 2 at 5 pm. You will meet your APALSA Big Sib at our first meeting on September 3. We look forward to a great year!

Federalist Society Fall Information Meeting

The Chapman Federalist Society will hold its Fall Information Meeting on Tuesday, September 3rd at 12:00-1:00 pm in Room 142. We will be discussing upcoming campus speakers and off campus events. Members and non-members are welcome. Lunch will be served.

Wednesday, September 4

Rosh Hashanah begins at sundown

Council of Presidents Meeting

The Student Bar Association will hold its first Council of Presidents Meeting on Wednesday, September 4 in Room 142 at 11:45 a.m. All presidents of student organizations are required to attend to receive important information from the SBA. Lunch will be provided.

Public Interest Panel—Wednesday, September 4

Learn about opportunities to work in public interest after school and opportunities to volunteer during school and build your substantive legal skills. Attorneys from the Legal Aid Society of OC, Public Law Center, and students who worked in public interest positions this past summer will share important information. Lunch will be provided. The presentation will be on Wednesday, September 4 at 11:45 a.m. in Room 237B. RSVP on Symplicity.

Thursday, September 5

Chapman Law Courier General Meeting

Please join us for the first annual informational Courier meeting! Lunch will be provided at the meeting. We will introduce current members of the Courier staff and also discuss open positions, time commitments, etc. Ryan Anderson, the Managing Editor, will provide a brief training on writing and editing for the Courier. Then, there will be a production meeting to prepare for the upcoming issue of the Courier.
The meeting is open to everyone, whether you are currently on the Courier staff or are interested in contributing in writing, layout, sales, or other areas. If you are interested in boosting your resume, come learn more about how the Courier can help! Please feel free to bring friends who also may be interested.

The meeting will be in Room 152 from 12:00 pm to 1:00 pm on Thursday, September 5, 2013. Please feel free to email thechapmanlawcourier@gmail.com if you have any questions in the meantime!

Friday, September 6

“How Prosecuting the President” with Judge James Rogan

This year the Student Bar Association is sponsoring a series of coffeehouse chats featuring members of the Fowler Law faculty. In January 1999, Congressman James Rogan managed the impeachment trial of President Clinton. On September 6, from 11:45 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. in the Professor Frank J. Doti Lecture Hall, room 142, he will share his professional experiences and personal observations from this historic event. Coffee, tea, and cookies will be provided.

Angels Day

Chapman Law’s annual Angels Day is coming up Friday, September 6! Tickets cost $30 and are on sale in the lobby during lunch. The ticket price includes a Chapman Law Angels Day t-shirt and admission to the Angels v. Rangers game at 7:05 PM. It will be a great time so buy your ticket before we sell out!

Saturday, September 7

Attention 3Ls! Take Charge of Your Legal Career—Saturday, September 7

On Saturday, September 7 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in Room 142, the CSO will be hosting an event for 3Ls and recent graduates. Attendees will learn how to connect with a prospective employer’s needs, find out about law firm practice opportunities, hear about solo practice, and gain new networking knowledge. Continental Breakfast will be provided and free professional headshots will be taken.

Monday, September 9

St. Thomas More Society Meeting

The St. Thomas More Society, composed of Roman Catholic lawyers, judges, law students, and professors, will be holding an introductory lunch on Monday, September 9, from 11:45-1:00 p.m. in Room 237B. Come meet fellow Catholic law students and lawyers, as we plan for the October 7 Red Mass and other events. Free pizza and soft drinks will be provided. For further information, contact Prof. Mainero or Joan Seguin in Career Services.

Tuesday, September 10

Dale E. Fowler School of Law Dedication

The ceremony celebrating the dedication of the law school as the Dale E. Fowler School of Law will take place at 11:00 a.m. on Tuesday, September 10 in the law school lobby. Classes will be cancelled from 10:15 a.m. through noon on that day so that everyone who wishes to do so can attend the celebration. Business attire is requested. See you there!

Wednesday, September 11

OCDA Presentation: How to Land an Internship or a Prosecutor Position

On Wednesday, September 11 from 11:45 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the Professor Frank J. Doti Lecture Hall, room 142, Senior Assistant District Attorney Jim Tanizaki will discuss how to land an internship during law school or a post-graduate prosecutor position. Lunch will be provided.

Thursday, September 12

A Message from the Law Registrar’s Office

First-year law students, please join us for the information session on “Examination Procedures” on Thursday, September 12, from 12:00 noon – 12:45 p.m. in room 237AB. This session is mandatory for all first year students. We look forward to seeing you at the session. You may bring your lunch.

Friday, September 13

Mandatory 1L Presentation: Effective Professional Correspondence & Application Materials
On Friday, September 13 from 11:45 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in Room 237 A&B, the CSO will be conducting a MANDATORY presentation for 1Ls entitled Effective Professional Correspondence & Application Materials: Your Ticket to an Interview.

"All 1Ls MUST complete 15 credit hours of Professional Development training to be eligible to graduate from Chapman University School of Law. 1Ls must attend this event in order to fulfill their Professionalism Graduation Requirement. Other students are welcome, but their attendance is not required.

Jemma Ericksen of Sedgwick LLP and Michael Baroni of Palace Entertainment will discuss how to make your resume market ready and give you tips to get you hired.

Snacks will be provided.

Note: Because Professional Development credit is required, it is an event for which attendance counts. As a result, please note that it is an offense under the Honor Code to misrepresent one’s own or another’s attendance or absence from such an event. This would include signing in for an event and then leaving before the conclusion of that event. To receive credit for participation in a Professional Development event, you must arrive on time, sign-in, and stay for the entire presentation. If you leave a Professional Development event early or arrive late, you will receive no credit. (‘Late’ means arriving more than five minutes past the event start time.) Partial credit will not be given. If you must leave the event for a few minutes to use the restroom, then you will be required to sign in again with a CSO staff member. No laptop or phone usage is permitted during the event.
