COMMUNITY

Strange Spirit: One Country's Occupation. Film screening and discussion with documentary filmmakers Ronny Novick and Rebecca McClen Novick, Irvine Lecture Hall, 2002. Self-initiative to increase university and community awareness of trauma-related issues in Tibetan torture survivors. Filmmakers graciously agreed to present their film on campus pro bono. I organized all aspects of the screening event including on-campus and off-campus publicity, speaker introductions, facilitating the audience Q & A period, and other hosting responsibilities.

COMMUNITY Cont.

Whispered Prayers. Film screening and discussion with documentary filmmaker Stephen Harrison. Irvine Lecture Hall, 2002. A second self-initiative to increase university and community awareness of coping and resiliency among Tibetan political refugees. Mr. Harrison graciously agreed to present & discuss his film on campus pro bono. I organized all aspects of the screening event including on-campus and off-campus publicity, speaker introduction, facilitating the audience Q & A period, and other hosting responsibilities.

St. Anselm's Cross-Cultural Community Center, Garden Grove, CA, 2002-2003. Volunteer and peer support consultant. Weekly onsite visits to meet with parents individually and consult with Ms. Goldi Tarzi, Social Services Director. Most parents were first generation Vietnamese Americans struggling with a range of acculturation, parent-child communication, and child discipline issues. Supervision provided by Dr. Ron Scott. Honored with the 2003 Volunteer Award.

Gaden Shartse Thubten Dhargye Ling (GSTDL), Long Beach, CA. Volunteer for 2000 and 2006 public talks by His Holiness Dalai Lama. Member of the volunteer team to prepare for two visits by the HHDL to the Greater Los Angeles area.

Resistance & Resilience in Tibet. Pema Chhinjor Khangtetsang, past member of the Tibetan Parliament-in-Exile and Director of the Steering Committee, Alliance for Democracy in Asia, Irvine Lecture Hall, 2008. Self-initiative to bring distinguished speaker to campus. The Honorable Mr. Khangtetsang graciously agreed to present his long-term political/professional perspectives and personal experiences as a Tibetan refugee pro bono. I organized all aspects of the screening event including on-campus and off-campus publicity, meeting with the psychology chair, speaker introduction, facilitating the audience Q & A period, and other hosting responsibilities.
