

High School Art
First Place

Ending Vision

Edwin Villa, Grade 11
Laguna Hills High School

“Ending Vision” is a charcoal representation of a moment of final decision. This work shows a decision already made by the perpetrators, while a witness watches the horror through their glasses. I chose charcoal on brown paper to show the starkness of the world in the concentration camps.

