FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- What is the geographic reach of the contest?
The contest is open to students both in the United States and internationally. All entries must be submitted in English.

- What grade levels are eligible to participate?
Students currently enrolled in grades 6 – 12, or the international equivalent, may participate in the contest.

- In what categories may students compete?
There are four categories: art (which includes photography), film, poetry, and prose.

- How many entries are allowed per school?
Participating schools may submit a total of three entries (one entry per student) in any combination of the following categories: art, film, poetry, or prose.
  - Schools serving middle and high school grades may submit up to three entries for middle school grades and up to three entries for high school grades.

- Do middle school students compete against high school students?
No. Students in grades 6 – 8 compete in the middle school division and students in grades 9 – 12 compete in the high school division.

- Are group entries eligible?
Student groups may submit their work; however, only one prize will be awarded should the entry win a top prize.

- If my school isn’t local, do I need to be present at the awards ceremony to receive prizes/recognition?
If your school is not in Southern California, your school does not need to be physically present at the awards ceremony to receive certificates or prizes. For participants who would like to take part in the ceremony, a live video link will be made available.

- Can students use a personal contact as the basis of their work instead of using a video testimony?
No. Students in grades 6 – 12 must use video testimonials from the contest approved websites.

- Can students use a personal contact as the basis of their work instead of using a video testimony?
Yes. The Rodgers Center for Holocaust Education will offer workshops on-site and online in Fall 2021. Please check the contest website Chapman.edu/holocaust-arts-contest to view a PDF with active links.

- Do students have to be sponsored by a school or can they enter the contest on their own?
Students must be sponsored by schools. Works submitted without a school/educator sponsorship will not be entered into the competition.

- Are students who attend a home school, alternative school, or other non-traditional education center eligible to participate?
Yes, all educational facilities that serve grades 6 – 12 are eligible to participate in the contest.

- Do students need to cite the sources they use in their submissions?
Yes, students are required to provide the URL of the video testimony used in their works. In addition, if secondary sources are used, students should submit a separate page of citations for these sources along with their entries.

- Can a student use commercial music in their film project?
Students must obtain written permission from copyright holders for all music used in film entries, with the exception of tracks from the Echoes of Vilna album made available by the Orange County Klezmers. Email cioffi@chapman.edu to request access to preview tracks and to request download links.

- Can a student use images or film clips from the Internet in their film project?
Written permission from the copyright holder is required for images and film clips that do not belong to the student or are not in the public domain.

- What happens to the winning entries?
All submissions, including original works of art, become the property of the Rodgers Center for Holocaust Education at Chapman University.

- When are winners notified?
Winners will be announced at the awards ceremony at Chapman University on March 11, 2022.

- How are entries submitted?
Your school’s three entries may be submitted digitally using the online submission form found on the Holocaust Art & Writing Contest website. First-place artists may be required to provide the original hard copies of their artworks. Hard copy submissions may be sent to:

  Jessica MyLymuk
  Rodgers Center for Holocaust Education
  Chapman University
  One University Drive
  Orange, CA 92866, USA

- When is the deadline to submit entries?
The postmark deadline for submissions is February 1, 2022. The deadline for delivering or sending submissions digitally is February 3, 2022.

- Do you offer professional development opportunities for teachers to help them prepare their students to participate in the contest?
Yes. The Rodgers Center for Holocaust Education will offer workshops both on-site and online in Fall 2021. Please check the contest website for specific dates and information on how to register.

For any other questions, contact Jessica MyLymuk at the Rodgers Center for Holocaust Education at Chapman University at cioffi@chapman.edu or at (714) 628-7377.
CRITERIA

General Criteria – All Categories

- All entries, regardless of delivery method, must be submitted online using the online submission form found on the contest website.
- Entries must reflect genuine engagement with the survivor’s testimony in its historical context and constitute a thoughtful and creative response.
- Entries must be based on a survivor’s testimony available from one of the following sources:
  - The 1939 Society website at the1939society.org
  - Chapman University’s Holocaust Art & Writing Contest website featuring video testimonies from the collection of the USC Shoah Foundation at Chapman.edu/context-testimonies
  - South Carolina Council on the Holocaust website at scholocaustcouncil.org/survivor.php
  - USC Shoah Foundation - The Institute for Visual History and Education’s YouTube channel at Youtube.com/uscshoahfoundation ("Full-Length Testimonies" playlists)
- Entries should include a time stamp (timecode) from the video testimony. This is the moment in the testimony that the student chooses that references the theme of the contest prompt.
- Entries that do not follow the criteria will be disqualified.

Specific Criteria – Art

- All entries, regardless of delivery method, must be submitted online using the online submission form found on the contest website.

  - Statement of how the work addresses the prompt
  - Must not include student or school name and must not exceed 100 words.
- Acknowledgement of sources – to protect copyright holders, proper citation of all sources is required. Permission for sources that are not public domain must be obtained in writing from copyright holder and submitted with entry.
- Content viewing time (without credits) may be no longer than three [3] minutes.
- File size must not exceed 600 MB.
- Films are to be submitted without credits for blind judging. A completed film with credits should be prepared in the event the film is selected for screening.
- Films may be submitted using WeTransfer.com, Google Drive, or other free file transfer websites.
- To ensure compatibility with MAC and PC, please use either QuickTime or MPEG format.
- Entries that do not follow the criteria will be disqualified.

We are grateful to the Orange County Klezmers for making available to registered participants musical selections from their album Echoes of Vilna. To preview or to request tracks for use in a film entry, please email Jessica MyLymuk, cioffi@chapman.edu.

Students wishing to use music, photos, video, or other artwork in their films should be aware that these may be protected by U.S. copyright law and therefore require permission from the artists to use them. Purchasing or downloading materials from a website is generally intended for personal and home use only and does not grant the purchaser the right to reproduce, perform, or display copyrighted works publicly. For any copyrighted works appearing in the film, written permission must be obtained from the copyright holders and submitted with the entry.

The Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts & Literacy in History/Social Studies, Science, and Technical Subjects (“the Standards”) are the culmination of an extended, broad-based effort to fulfill the charge issued by the states to create the next generation of K–12 standards in order to help ensure that all students are college and career ready in literacy no later than the end of high school. (http://www.corestandards.org/ELA-Literacy)

The 23rd Annual Holocaust Art & Writing Contest provides an authentic speaking, listening, and writing experience for middle and high school students. They can use the contest to better understand the rhetorical concepts of audience, purpose, genre, and style. The contest also provides students an opportunity to explore an integrated model of literacy, conducting original research, and consuming and producing across multi-media.
