IV. New Business
   a. Senator Swear-In: Regina Bryant
   b. Funding Request – USITT
      i. Total Requested: $13,160.33
      ii. Chapman On Broadway, The Player's Society, Chapman Dance Alliance and USITT Chapman will collaborate in order to produce a high-production value performance of Chicago The Musical. We will provide performance, directing, design, and theatre technology opportunities for students across the Chapman University community, outside of the College of Performing Arts. It also gives students the chance to work on a production larger than any of the individual theater clubs on campus could produce, thus giving them more industry-level experience.
      iii. Mitchell Rosenberg: Why are the costs so high?
          1. Representative 1: The reason the cost for lighting is so high is because the lighting and equipment in Memorial Hall is very inadequate. We need LED lighting with fans because the lights do get hot.
          2. Mitchell Rosenberg: Have you looked at Musco to perform?
             a. Representative 1: Yes we have, however Musco charges a fee for student productions and the fee is about $4,000 for two nights and we need a whole week for Chicago. Therefore, we couldn’t do our performances in Musco or Waltmar.

iv. Saba Amid: I understand the performance is of higher caliber, however, the amount you are asking for is a pretty large jump from your performance of Legally Blonde.
   1. Representative 3: Yes the amount is higher, however, last year we didn’t need to ask you for the funds for the rights. We were able to do that from our profits from Hair, but since we didn’t keep the profits from legally blonde, our amount requested has raised.

v. Maytal Sarafian: Have you in your past held any fundraising events?
   1. Representative 1: No we have not because we normally have help from SGA.

vi. Wil Harris: We really have to think about what the students would want. This is the students money from their activities fee that they pay and this is a lot of money. We have to figure out what is equitable. I also don’t feel comfortable funding this when you have said you have only relied on SGA for funds and not doing the work to look elsewhere.

vii. Alyssa Nowlen: I don’t think we should deny the request, I think we should fund part of it because this does benefit a wide range of students. This will serve a large portion of the Chapman Community.

viii. Regina Bryant: I agree with Alyssa because this will be greatly beneficial to the Chapman community as well as COPA as a whole.

ix. Tyler Brooks: I think we should table this until they can come up with a revised budget.

x. Motion to table: Tyler Brooks

c. Revamped Mental Health System Walkthrough
   i. Mitchell Rosenberg: A new system will be implemented in the Fall. What would happen most often was a student was told to go to the Counseling Center and they would express they were having issues with a class and would be stressed. The counselor would then realize maybe this is an Academic Advising issue and redirect the student to the proper help. Now students in need will be assigned with a case manager who will direct the student in the right direction of what they need. Rather than having it filter through the Student Psychological Center. This will be a more effective way of helping more students and sending them to receive the proper help from the correct resource. The case manager will also follow up to make sure you received the help you needed or if help is still needed. We are also working on created Stress Relieve Sessions for first year students in Residence Life so we can help mitigate any future crisis for students.
