      • Requested: $4250.00
      1. Recommendation: To fund in full.
      2. $85.00 per person
      • Cru Rep: Fall Retreat is a very highly anticipated event each year, and it is something everyone really looks forward to. This is the place and time for students to put aside time for God, whatever that means to you, and really connect and reflect.
      • Abby Tan: How many people will be returning?
      1. Rep: About half are returning members, and the other half have never been.
      • Abby Tan: Will non-Chapman students be attending?
      1. OCC, UC Irvine, numerous JCs in the community attending as well. All 50 we are requesting funding for are Chapman students.
      • Jacky Dang: What does cost cover?
      1. Food, materials, games, and other things that the camp may need to purchase before the event.
         a. Carter Kane: Does the cost cover transportation?
         i. No, students arrange their own rides.

• Funding the student lunch
  1. Requested: $3468.66
     a. Recommendation: To fund in full.
• Karmen Pantoja: Where did they get the estimate of how many students and staff were at the event?
  1. Alex Ballard: When I finally got around to this request, I checked in with the submitters and asked for updated numbers.
• Jacky Dang: We are only funding the lunch because we are unable to fund events related to politics?
  1. Alex Ballard: No, they actually only asked for funding for lunch. They are receiving they remainder of funds from other sources.
• Motion to fund in full for $3468.66
  1. Motion: Jacky Dang

V. Open Forum
   a. Matt Liner: I wanted to bring up another student complaint. The basketball court lights are out, and this is something I have to bring up with facilities but wanted to bring it up before senate as well.
      • Abby Tan: I already spoke to Matt about this, but I think this is a good initiative because this is something the school should be on top of.
   b. Jacky Dang: When you have to check out equipment in Dodge, and in the therapy department here at Chapman, it outs a lot of people who use their preferred names over legal names. Is this an initiative, or just a campus climate issue?
      • Abby Tan: I am not entirely sure. I would consider talking to these places first and ask for reasoning, this may be a quick fix and not need a lot of advocacy behind it. You should also pair up with Carter to take this on.
