- a. Funding Request: J Street Conference
 1. Amount Requested: $6867.20
 1. Fund students who are going to a debate on the Israel and Palestine conflict. J Street originally requested upwards of $8000.00 but they decided to cover registration costs for themselves. There are 20 students that will be attending the conference, costs will be covering food, ground transportation etc.
 2. Alex Ballard: Original request was $400.00 for 20 students which comes out to $8000.00, but this is no longer what is needed.
 3. Summer Khatib: This is a pro-Israel group?
 - a. The conference they are attending are elected representatives, chosen speakers, etc. that are discussing the ongoing issues with this conflict. This group also supports a two-state solution, so neither the group nor conference is pro-Israel.

We pulled her application from that bunch and nominated her for Assistant Director of Finance and when the idea of the position came about, we knew she was a perfect fit. Her and Alex work very well together and I believe she will do very well in this position.
