a. Diversity Affairs Committee
   i. Senator Updates
      1. Senator Khatib: Summer is excited to begin an interfaith initiative that looks at religious and spiritual diversity. This is in the beginning planning stages and she is thinking to hopefully have an event that is focused around dialogue and inviting student run faith groups to come together, eat, and enjoy one another.
      2. Senator Croft: Carly is looking forward to helping with the Dodge Diversity panels and is looking for feedback from her constituents on what subjects and areas they would like to see Diversity Affairs approach and how.
      3. Senator Bryant: Regina is working on her COPA initiatives and is looking forward to being a leading charge in the Dodge Diversity panel discussion next semester.
      4. Senator Palacios: Jackie is compiling data and hopes to have a meeting with Sodexo about our Vegan Day Celebration soon. She is also planning on hosting more open forum and town hall style meetings next semester to have more student dialogue and student input.

   ii. Discussion
      1. While our committee had already reserved a time and space for the Dodge Diversity Panels for this semester, we thought it would be wise to move them into the beginning of next semester in order to allow more time for planning and organizing.
      2. Town Halls
         a. We discussed making are we have more student and constituent dialogue next semester. We want to make our meeting times more public and advertise them for people to stop by and let us know what they want to see our committee do!

b. Community Outreach Committee

      SOC Associate Dean Andrea Weber and AAC Director Roberto Coronel to students with all departments. Spoke with Brittany Pacheco following the second student focus group regarding one of the potential Closing

d. Executive Council
e. Outside Committees

VII. New Business

a. Funding Request: Chapman Society for Music Education
   i. Fund in partial for $5,250.00
   b. Representative: This event is a conference that has a lot of different speakers, and influences within the choral education. This helps us receive a more specified education in regard to what we are studying
      i. Summer Khatib: Are most people involved in this intending to go into music education?
         1. Representative: Yes, we also have performance majors. But most people on the performance route acknowledge they need more than one job, the other being teaching. We are a mix of choral and instrumental influences.
      ii. Saba Amid: Have any of you attended this in the past?
         1. Representative: No not this specific conference, last year we did attend the regional conference.
      iii. Saba Amid: What do you think you will gain from going to the conference again?
         1. Representative: There are a lot of seminars in this area. There will be performance groups from all over the world attending, thus giving a large exposure to the industry we are looking to become a part of.
   iv. Abby Tan: How did you decide who you wanted to send?
      1. Representative: Mostly juniors, seniors, or transfer students.
   v. Saba Amid: I think this a great funding request.
   vi. Funding in part $5,250.00
      1. Motion: Saba Amid
      2. 2nd: Nicole Katz
      3. Unanimous

D. Proposed Title IX Regulation
i. Mitchell Rosenberg: This is so that we as student government can educate ourselves on laws that will directly affect Chapman students.

1. Alex Ballard: I have serious concerns regarding the previous changes. Especially on this campus, it is very difficult for people who experienced this to report. This is not necessarily and easy place to report something. So, this is further flawing an already flawed something.

2. Ishani Patel: This is making the accusation process so much more difficult.

3. Mitchell Rosenberg: This is being passed to help those being accused.

4. Saba Amid: It is already difficult to get people to report this, this is going to make it even more difficult and could possibly lead to these crimes occurring more often.

5. Lindsey Ellis: The entire new definition of sexual harassment is very offensive. But from a university standpoint, this is going to put so much pressure on the advisors on how/where to draw the line when it comes to what is severe.

6. Mitchell Rosenberg: How can we increase support services for students who may not supported under this new doctrine?

d. Election Code

i. Section 5: Senators

1. Saba Amid: I think assigning people to seats when they are involved SGA will be easier than having a bunch of different positions. I like the idea of having distinctions and splitting it up, but I am not sure.

2. Alex Ballard: I disagree, I see this as better way for student orgs to have representation. This will give student orgs more opportunities for engagement.

3. Wil Harris: I want these elections to have opposition.

4. Jackie Palacios: How would the size of each organization lie on the senator responsible for each?

5. Mitchell Rosenberg: I think there are valid concerns. But overall, I think I am leaning toward team change because representation for everyone.

6. Wil Harris: How did the system we have now affect the newest senators? How would the proposed idea have changed things?

   a. Summer Khatib: This would’ve encouraged me

   b. Ishani Patel: This also encouraged me.

   c. Dylan Derakhshanian: I would not have run if it was this way.

7. 80% - 20%

8. APPROVED

te. Ticket System:

1. 50%-50%

2. Article III, Section III of the Constitution states that: “To serve as an ex-officio member of the Senate [the Vice President], only voting in the event of a tie, and to all Senate committees;”

   a. Arianna Ngnomire: I will vote in opposition of this motion.

3. MOTION DENIED

e. PR Committee

i. Max Chang: This is not up for voting rather an idea proposal.

   1. This committee is meant to take some of the weight off of Monica and myself.

   2. This well help clearly structure the marketing for SGA’s initiatives.

ii. Summer Khatib: Will there be an application for this process?
1. Max Chang: Yes, application will be up (hopefully) by the latter half of winter break.

iii. Carly Croft: are you going to limit this to specific majors?
1. Max Chang: No, this will be open to everyone.

iv. Saba Amid: This is a really good idea and will be really helpful for the both of you guys.

v. Alex Ballard: This will be very helpful when it comes to elections.
