   a. University and Academic Affairs Committee
      i. Courtney Wong: Going to research the Recylemania Program
      ii. Alyssa Nowlen: Met Dean Lyon and talked about open classrooms as potential study space. Met with Eric Cameron on Wednesday and discussed how SGA is trying to establish a good relationship with Sodexo.
      iii. Saba Amid: Still thinking about what advocacies to pursue
      iv. Ansley Wong: Attallah College Leadership Council – Met with the chairs and the Associate Dean to talk about the interview process.
   b. Diversity Affairs Committee
      i. Krista Tamares: had lunch with the Dean of the film school. She is in the works of scheduling a Diversity Panel in Dodge, she is reaching out to contacts to set that up.
      ii. Ian Policarpio: has been looking up national menus for the possibility of adding vegan and vegetarian options. He will come to us next week with a compiled list of all the vegan and vegetarian options we already have on campus and he will compare that to their national menus.
      iii. Erin Mason: is going to serve as a liaison between SGA and many of the student organizations. She will let them know of the services that we can provide to students and become a friendly face for the community to know.
   c. Community Outreach Committee
      i. Maytal Sarafian: Plans to call Director of Recreation Services on upcoming events in Orange ii. Lisa Kang: Finalized volunteers for Socktober Homecoming with Michael. Started Korean language program petition and met with professor Nam. Spoke with Chair of UPB on collaborating for Chapman Dog Day. Began outlining purpose, logistics and timeline with Committee

V. Open Forum
   a. Recorded Classroom Lectures
      i. Mitchell Rosenberg- IS&T will be coming into meeting next week to answer any questions about the recording of lectures. From what they have said, it has become very popular with graduate students. I am unaware of how many undergraduate classes have used the technology. Please bring any questions you may have to next meeting so that they may answer it.
   b. Public Safety:
      i. Mitchell Rosenberg- I set up an Orgsync form for SGA to submit feedback or any questions or concerns we may have regarding Public Safety. Chief Burba is out of town this week, so next week I’ll get in contact with him to let him know our concerns, so please fill it out with anything you think is necessary.

VI. Announcements
   a. Alyssa Nowlen- I met with Eric Cameron he was very supportive, understanding, and very willing to work with us. He is proud of the relationship we have and if there's anything we have concerns about, he is more than happy to discuss it.
   b. Jackie Palacios- Wake up with SGA radio show starts Tuesday at 9am!
   c. Mitchell Rosenberg- Homecoming Weekend is next week so enjoy the festivities
   d. Sarah Tabsh- I will be sending out an email regarding monthly senator reports.

VII. Adjournment
