FOR PARENTS OF FIRST-GENERATION COLLEGE STUDENTS: HELPING YOUR STUDENT SUCCEED

LOCATION: Argyros Forum, Room 208

Is your student first in their family to pursue a bachelor's degree? If so - come join us to learn how you can support your student academically and personally. In addition to learning about the resources Chapman has to offer, some current first-generation college students will be on hand to share their own experiences. During this session we will discuss the mission and goals of the Promising Futures Program, our optional support program for first-generation college students at Chapman. Being the parent of a student who is the first in their family to go to college is a very proud accomplishment. We look forward to providing you with resources and advice to better support your student!

5 - 7 p.m.
WCAHSS DEPARTMENT OF ART FRESHMAN AND FAMILY RECEPTION

LOCATION: Moulton Hall and Guggenheim Gallery

Welcome to the Department of Art! We are hosting a welcome reception (includes kiln-fired pizzas) and facilities tour for all incoming Graphic Design, Art & Art History students and families. Students will meet our full-time faculty members, art student club representatives, and staff. Important information will be provided to help set them up for a successful academic year. It will also be a time for families to have an in-depth view of where art students will spend much of their time. We look forward to meeting you.
