Current enrollment at Chapman University

Please submit this application along with:

- A one page list of your activities since high-school. Include awards, honors, on-campus involvement and other activities that demonstrate leadership and service to humanity. Include dates for all.
- A 500 word essay discussing your special contributions that demonstrate initiative, ambition and commitment while pursuing a degree at Chapman University. Include your future educational, career and personal goals.
- A letter of recommendation from a university professor in a signed and sealed envelope included with your application. Present the professor with copies of your list of activities, your 500 word essay and a copy of your application form.
- A copy of your official transcript.
- *Note: To qualify for junior status (60 units), an applicant may apply during their sophomore year with a minimum of 45 units completed and enough in-progress to achieve 60 units by the end of the spring semester.

Selected Recipients should know: All scholarship recipients are strongly encouraged to attend one luncheon during the school year, at which you will give a brief speech (3-5 minutes) about your background, interests and future plans. You may also be invited to additional events, and we hope you will participate! Winners will be notified by mid-August.

Be sure to include the email address that you will be checking over the summer and provide a cell phone number at which you can be reached.

ABOUT TOWN & GOWN

Town & Gown is a non-profit support group for Chapman University which offers opportunities for its members to enjoy the campus, meet administrators and faculty, attend academic programs and participate in social and cultural functions. It serves as a vital link between the university and the community by sharing information about Chapman and offering programs of special interest to all.

Town & Gown is very committed to its scholarship program and the members look forward to meeting our scholarship recipients each year. The 2017-18 academic year will be the 50th anniversary of Town & Gown and continuing to celebrate our scholars and their journey following their graduation will be a huge part of our celebration.

Since it was founded in 1968, Town & Gown has contributed financially to the university through its membership gifts. It focuses on several projects and programs annually, including: scholarships, a library endowment, campus enhancement projects, and Lunch at the Forum.
