

Climate Change and Extreme Weather in California: Is This The New Normal?

Cynthia Ruiz
Past Vice President,
Los Angeles
Department of Water and Power Board

HOSTED BY: ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

September 18, 2023

6:00pm - 7:30pm

Argyros Forum • 209A

Climate change is driving the frequency and intensity of extreme weather events, including megadroughts and tropical storms. Is this “weather whiplash” the new normal?

Join us as a panel of experts and professionals discuss the challenges of managing Southern California’s water in an increasingly dry and volatile future.

Jeff Mosher
General Manager,
Santa Ana
Watershed Project
Authority

Tom Piechota
Dean, Fowler
School of Engineering

