ENGAGING THE WORLD: Leading the Conversation on the Significance of Race

Fall 2020 Lecture Series Events

Working for Racial Justice and Human Rights
Co-sponsored by the Delp-Wilkinson Peace Studies Lecture Series

Nov. 2, 2020, 7:00 p.m.
Zoom link: https://chapman.zoom.us/j/92087838718

Special Guests:

Dr. Ahmed Younis
Former Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of State and Deputy Special Envoy (Global Engagement Center). Dr. Younis is currently a lecturer for the Department of Peace Studies.

Dr. Claudia Fuentes-Julio
Professor in the Department of Peace Studies whose research interests are international/universal human rights, the global south, and post-conflict transitions.

Dr. Rozell “Prexy” Nesbitt
Presidential Fellow in Peace Studies and a major figure in the struggle to end apartheid in South Africa and police brutality in the United States.

Please contact takaraga@chapman.edu if you have questions.

For more information on the Engaging the World series, visit our website www.chapman.edu/wilkinson/about/events/engaging-world.aspx