

Hosted by Disability Studies &
Co-Sponsored by the Art Department

Join us for the

Fourth Annual Ed Roberts Event Disability Drawing Club

Renée Reizman, an interdisciplinary artist and writer, will talk about her work with Disability Drawing Club and her community engaged art practice.

Wednesday
December 3, 2025
2:30-4:00pm
in AF 201

Renée Reizman is disabled, Jewish, interdisciplinary artist, writer, and educator. She works within diverse communities to co-author stories about infrastructure, public policy, and social change. She is the founder of Disability Drawing Club, and currently an adjunct assistant professor at Pepperdine University, the University of Southern California, and California State University Dominguez Hills.

CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY

Wilkinson College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences