

The Rodgers Center for Holocaust Education Presents

KRISTALLNACHT: FROM DESTRUCTION TO RESISTANCE

Monday, November 09, 2026

Fish Interfaith Center

7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

A Collaborative Program with the Jewish Federation of Orange County and the Philharmonic Society of Orange County.

Discover the remarkable story of Frieda Belinfante, proud lesbian, brave member of the Dutch resistance and the first female conductor in Europe to lead her own symphony orchestra. Through a seamless blend of storytelling and live music, follow her perilous escape from war-torn Europe to Southern California, where she became a highly influential figure in Orange County's music and cultural history.

Scan for more info

Co-sponsored by the Fish Interfaith Center

*Funded by The Sally and Jerry Schwartz Endowment for Holocaust Education and
The John and Toby Martz Distinguished Lecture in Holocaust Studies*

Rodgers Center for Holocaust Education