BOOK DISCUSSION
Liberating Mindfulness: From Billion-dollar Industry to Engaged Spirituality
by Gail J. Stearns

In collaboration with the Fish Interfaith Center, the Leatherby Libraries invites you to attend a book talk with Dr. Gail J. Stearns. The Irvin C. and Edy Chapman Dean of the Wallace All Faiths Chapel and Associate Professor of Religious and Peace Studies will discuss her new book, Liberating Mindfulness: From Billion-dollar Industry to Engaged Spirituality.

Introductions by Dr. Kevin Ross, Dean of the Leatherby Libraries; discussions moderated by Julye Bidmead, Director, Center for Undergraduate Excellence; comments by John Compton, Chair, Political Science, and Lisa Leitz, Chair, Peace Studies.

Meeting Date and Time
Thursday, December 1
4 - 5:30 p.m.
Appetizers will be served
Book signing to follow
Center for American War Letters Archives
Leatherby Libraries, Lower Level

Space is limited. To register or for more information, contact Essraa Nawar at nawar@chapman.edu or 714-532-7748.