

Peace Communication

SCC/PCST/IS393/593

June 1 to June 12th, 2026

Travel to Northern Ireland's historic Belfast
& Derry/Londonderry to

- Explore the ongoing peace process and the roles of community, religion, gender, and diaspora.
- Examine post-conflict challenges like segregation, policing reform, & trauma.
- Consider Brexit's impact on Northern Ireland's future.
- Learn from community initiatives that model dialogue and trust-building.

Participant Cost: $4,238 - $4,662

- Travel Awards Available
- All meals included except 2 dinners during free evenings

Applications are due by 11:59 PM on February 27th, 2026.

Questions? Contact either
Dr. Sara LaBelle (labelle@chapman.edu) or
Dr. Lisa Leitz (leitz@chapman.edu).

*Apply
Now*

Wilkinson College of Arts, Humanities, & Social Sciences

School of Communication