Please join us for a conversation in laughter and creativity with Jorma Taccone and Professor Lia Halloran.

Jorma is one-third of the sketch comedy troupe The Lonely Island. He produced, directed, and performs much of the music for The Lonely Island’s three albums “Incredibad,” “Turtleneck and Chain,” and “The Wack Album” and many of the nearly 100 SATURDAY NIGHT LIVE Digital Shorts. He was previously a writer/composer and director for the show from 2005 to 2012.

As an actor, Jorma will next be seen in the Amazon original romantic comedy film THE PEOPLE WE HATE AT THE WEDDING opposite Kristen Bell. Before that, he was in the HBO Max film AN AMERICAN PICKLE with Seth Rogen. He played Pee Wee Herman in WEIRD: THE AL YANKOVIC STORY with Danny Radcliffe, and he also played Adolph Hitler in the upcoming KUNG FURY: THE MOVIE, which stars Michael Fassbender and Arnold Schwarzenegger.

In addition, Jorma has appeared as a guest star on NBC’s UP ALL NIGHT, PARKS & RECREATION, FOX’s BROOKLYN NINE-NINE, FX’s THE LEAGUE, TBS’s MIRACLE WORKERS, NETFLIX’s BASH BROTHERS, and MICHAEL BOLTON’s BIG VALENTINES DAY SPECIAL.

Professor Lia Halloran is an artist and Chair of the Department of Art at Chapman University.
