

IT'S COMING TO TRADEMARK YOUR CULTURA!

The Latinx and Latin American Studies minor is designed to enhance each student's personalized educational and professional development by focusing on a population with a growing presence in the United States and an important region in global affairs. In addition to supplementing the education that students receive in their individual majors, this minor prepares students for an increasingly diverse society and a range of careers.

LEARN MORE ABOUT THIS MINOR HERE!

Image credit:
Quipu by Cecilia Vicuña, Muerto Mouse by Lalo Alcaraz,
Lotería by Felix Seon, Reverencia by Tania Candiani

Interdisciplinary Minor in LATINX AND LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

The Latinx and Latin American studies minor offers students the opportunity to learn about Latinx communities in the United States and Latin America.

The Latinx and Latin American Studies minor offers students interdisciplinary knowledge and cross cultural skills that can be applied in a range of professional occupations including business, marketing, education, legal aid, health care, public policy, community planning, non-governmental organizations, entertainment, and the arts. The minor focuses on historical, social, economic, political, and cultural forces that shape Latin America and Latinx communities in the United States. Students in the minor will develop critical thinking and analytical skills to understand the everyday experiences of the Latinx people.

For more information, please contact:

Professor Sandra Alvarez

salvarez@chapman.edu

or, contact your Academic Advisor.