

DEPARTMENT OF WORLD LANGUAGES AND CULTURES SPANISH

“El conocimiento de idiomas es la puerta a la sabiduría.”

“Knowledge of languages is the doorway to wisdom.”

– Roger Bacon

The mission of the Department of World Languages and Cultures is to empower students to lead inquiring, ethical and productive lives as global citizens through the study of a world language, its literature and culture.

In today's world, mastery of a foreign language transcends geography and political borders while reinforcing communication and cross-cultural understanding.

Majoring and Minor in Spanish

Spanish is widely spoken here in California and throughout the United States. The Spanish academic program is dedicated to promoting culturally and linguistically competent citizens in our multicultural and multilingual society. The professors in the Spanish academic program are dedicated to the communicative approach to language teaching and we offer a wide range of interdisciplinary courses on literature, culture and linguistics.

INTEGRATED curriculum that requires students to take a variety of classes and present their original research senior year.

INTERDISCIPLINARY curriculum that allows students to explore a range of topics, methodologies, iconography, material culture, social history, gender studies, and ethnic studies within their general education core.

INDIVIDUAL mentorship and internship opportunities are available to students.

INTERNATIONAL opportunities are encouraged by studying abroad or taking travel courses in a student's sophomore or junior year.
