

SIGMA IOTA RHO

THE HONOR SOCIETY FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

Mission Statement

The purpose of the Society is to promote and reward scholarship and service among students of International Studies, and to foster integrity and creative performance in the understanding of world affairs.

Benefits of Membership

- Certificate attesting membership status
- Sigma Iota Rho lapel pin
- Copy of the latest issue of the nationally distributed Journal of International Relations, with an opportunity for contribution to the journal as an author or an editor
- Free chapter subscription to the Internationalist magazine
- Graduation regalia: honor cord (included) or stole (discounted purchase)
- Access to professional networks
- Opportunity to attend conferences at the United Nations, World Bank and more
- Opportunity to receive research and travel grant funding
- Along with the tangible list of benefits surely come such things as life-long relationships, personal growth, development and realization of the leadership potential, opportunities to deepen one's understanding of international affairs, and have fun!

The requirements for membership in the society are the following:

- You must either be
Master's candidate for International Studies who has completed at least one semester of graduate level work or
An undergraduate with junior or senior standing who has completed at least twenty-one (21) units of coursework in anthropology, economics, foreign languages, history, peace studies, political science, or related disciplines, including two courses at the 300 or 400 level.
- You must achieve and maintain GPA of 3.3