Bringing ISIS to Justice: A Conversation with Nobel Laureate Nadia Murad

Moderated by President Daniele Struppa
Tuesday, March 14, 2023 | 7:30 p.m.
Musco Center for the Arts

Nobel Peace Prize Laureate and Chapman Presidential Fellow Nadia Murad will speak about her pathway to and experiences as a global advocate for the prevention of conflict-related sexual violence, survivor-centric recovery efforts, and the pursuit of gender equality. After surviving the Islamic State’s (ISIS) attempt to eradicate the Yazidi people of Iraq, Murad has dedicated her life to assisting fellow survivors of violence worldwide, bringing the perpetrators to justice, and restoring both her homeland of Sinjar and other communities destroyed by conflict.

* The Last Girl on sale before and after the event.
   Book signing to follow the event.

Co-sponsors:
Office of the President
Department of Peace Studies
The Delp-Wilkinson Lecture Series