Venerable Tenzin Priyadarshi

Venerable Tenzin Priyadarshi is the Founding Director of The Dalai Lama Center for Ethics and Transformative Values at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

He is the Buddhist chaplain at MIT and teaches Buddhist philosophy and practice through the Prajnopaya Institute.

Public Talk
February 10, 2012, Friday 7:30pm to 9pm
University of Southern California, Taper Hall 102
“Happiness and Well-being in Times of Uncertainty”

Buddhism offers meaningful perspectives for making sense of the circumstances of life, and accessible methods for cultivating attitudes and capacities to solve life’s problems. Ven. Tenzin Priyadarshi will illuminate basic concepts of Buddhism and show their practical application in contemporary life. The inner steadiness to face life’s uncertainties, calmness, clarity, and well-being, can be found through putting these methods into practice.

Retreat
February 11-12, Saturday 9am to 5pm, Sunday 9am to noon
Chapman University, Beckman Hall 214
“Vimalakirti Sutra”

This mahayana sutra with dramatic episodes and expansive view serves as an encouragement that the highest levels of spiritual attainment are open to laypersons.
